The News.

The ship loaded with provisions for the starving people of Savannah, arrived there recently, and the Mayor received the donation in behalf of the city, thanking the people of the North for their liberality and extolling the Federal rule in that ancient city. Doubtless the Mayor finds this pleasanter than "dying in the last ditch." Pity our soldiers in the prison pens of the South couldn't receive a ship load of food.

Large numbers of runaway slaves are constantly coming into the Union lines in North Carolina for the purpose of enlisting in the army.

The national fo[illegible] Pocotaligo, South Carolina, have captured 2 000 rebels and their artillery.

It is said Lee telegraphed to the officer in command that if Fort Fisher was abandoned he would have to evacuate Richmond. Good bye, Mr. Lee.

The reader will not fail to notice the nice little arrangement Ex-Senator Gwyn, formerly of California, has entered into over in Mexico. What a snug hiding place that will be for Jeff. Davis and his brother rebels to flee to one of these days.

Chief Justice Draper and his other associates have decided that the St. Albans raiders must be given up.

It is stated that Sheridan is to succeed Meade in command of the Army of the Potomac.

The Democracy in the Assembly.

The copperheads in the Assembly are not very loving toward each other. Hadley, of Milwaukee, thinks the city he in part represents, and the respect that is due to the very ample amount of gray hairs which he caries, entitle him to be the leader of the copperhead faction upon the floor. But the irrepressible and loquacious Jones, of Dodge, "don't exactly see it in that light," is disposed to lead himself, and accordingly gives Hadley a lively turn whenever opportunity offers. Jones is the correspondent of the Chicago Times which he thinks is as good a test of copperhead orthodoxy as Hadley can produce, even if the latter does represent the strongest "democratic" (?) city in America. It is said that in a recent debate about the location of a naval depot, Hadley provoked Jones to make some personal allusions to the legislative history of the former, especially to the part he took in the great land grant swindle of 1856, which created a decided sensation on the floor of the House. Jones is at present a little ahead, but Hadley is bound to place the irascible little Dodge county fellow hors de combat, before the close of the session. In the meantime, Abrams, of Brown, (a cute fellow) plays these two would be leaders off, one against the other, and slyly leads his side of the House himself. In this way he secured the nomination for Speaker, and he seems disposed to continue it. The fight is a very pretty one as it now stands.

The Rates of Legal Advertising.

Most publishers in Wisconsin will be somewhat surprised to learn that a bill which has been introduced into the Legislature to raise the rates of legal advertising, is meeting with some opposition, and yesterday was postponed in the Senate for two weeks. We fail to appreciate the reasons for this opposition. The bill in question does not contemplate an increase of rates at all in proportion with the increase of paper, ink, material and labor, as compared with the rates as they now stand. Honorable gentlemen are doubtless aware that there has been a slight advance in most articles of merchandise since the war broke out, and that in no department of business has the increase been greater than that which relates to the publishing business. While paper costs three times what it did three years ago, and ink double what it did then, it is only proposed by the bill in question, to increase the legal rates of printing in a very moderate degree.

We hope the opponents of this just measure may be induced to withdraw their opposition and allow the publishers of the State a reasonable compensation for their labor. It is simply a matter of the strictest justice that the bill should pass.

Mrs. Harvey.

A private letter from Mrs. Harvey from Vicksburg, says, "You may inform the Shopiere and Clinton people that the lint and bandages they sent happened to be all we had in the 'Home' and we used the same with hearts full of gratitude to them."

The soldiers thus supplied were brought in by Gen. Grierson, sick and wounded ones. The carrier of the Vicksburg Whig pays a high compliment to Mrs. Harvey, in his annual address. He says,

But let valor's haughty champions wail,
While love unchallenged passes through the gate;
For where the battle rages high,
Sweet woman stoops with tearful eye,
And o'er the weak and wounded brave
She leans, an angel bright to save.
So beamed Wisconsin's widowed one
When Shiloh's bloody field was done,
Shone like a seraph o'er the angry field,
With faith in Heaven, and love for shield,
Her heart of truth turned battle's harms away,
And angels hovering near to hear an angel pray,
Awoke the glorious concert of the blest,
With praises pure of Harvey of the west;
Whose jewels glistening lovelier far
Than brightest pearls of diamond rare,
Gleam in the soldier's trembling tear,
Polished by sorrow's earnest prayer
Shall shine more glorious than the hero's scroll,
Till Time his latest annals shall unroll!

THE rebels in Texas are apprehensive of an attack on their coast, and are reported to be rallying for defense.

THE WOUNDED SOLDIER BOY.

[For the Gazette.]

Long since had ceased the cannon's roar,
And clang of arms and trumpets stilled;
The wounded yet among the killed,
Were lying in the frozen gore.

The silver moon her face revealed,
The twinkling stars were beaming bright;
And all were keeping watch that night,
O'er Lookout Mountain battle field.

A youth who was in battle bold,
There, we tered in his blood still flowing;
And though the Aquilon was blowing,
He shivered more from fear than cold:—

Lest friendly aid should come too late,
To staunch the blood, which faint in trying:
He felt as if he then was dying,
And prayed for strength to meet his fate.

Unbid, he stealthily had left,
His mother in her grief forlorn;
Yet in the battle, night, or morn,
He sorrowed, that she was bereft.

But that conviction, worst in all—
The cat rogue, had come too late;
He owned the justice of his fate,
And more, he felt it past recall.

There, tumbling lay, in dripping gore,
The Mother's hope and only joy;
She trembled too; but for her boy,
As she had heard the cannon's roar.

He thought of home and then would sigh,
Hope beaming, whispered coming aid;
And then again, it seemed to fade,
For echo only, brought reply.

So keen his ear, he thought it did,
It might have been the moaning wind;
For from the friends he left behind,
He dreaded an answer was forbid.

Disheartened, but exhausted more,
He swooned, revived and then he slept;
And dreamed his mother o'er him wept,
As often she had done before.

When she could not resist his cry,
But caught and clasped him to her breast;
With love maternal him carressed,
And sweetly sang her lullaby.

But soon his happy dream was past,
He woke in gloomy shades of night;
The moon and stars refused their light,
And chilly blew the northern blast.

But when again he turned to meet—
His bitter fate, there came a sigh,
Which for an echo seemed too nigh,
And sent a thrill of joy too sweet.

Once more he thought of coming aid,
Hope lingered on, the last to part;
Then dressed the wound,—he felt the smart,
His Mother's hand was on it laid.

On pinions light, from scenes of joy,
Ye Angels—Ministers of Fate;
Come help your sister in her strait,
To save the wounded soldier boy.

For she is looking now for aid,
While to her breast her child is clinging;
As when she lullabies was singing,
Then, come before her hope shall fade.

From Heaven's lofty, mystic dome,
Through azure space, O wing your flight!
On Lookout Mountain top alight,
And take them gently, safely home.

A holy balm the child prepare,
Then mount the skies upon a ray,
Sent for you, from eternal day,
And leave him to a Mother's care.

Legislative Summary.

THURSDAY, Jan. 26th—Senate.—The resolution offered yesterday, reciting that authority to appoint recruiting agents, except second lieutenants, has been taken from the Governor; that there are difficulties about expenses for transportation, subsistence or lodgings, and that under the existing system of recruiting it will be difficult to fill the quota of Wisconsin; and requesting the Secretary of War to give the Governor authority to appoint recruiting agents, was adopted.

Several appropriation and local bills were introduced, also to increase the compensation of sheriffs for keeping prisoners from $2.50 to $3.50 a week.

The general file was considered in committee of the whole, and several bills ordered to a third reading.

Bills were discussed and re-referred, to incorporate the people's Savings Bank at Milwaukee; to repeal the statute allowing parties tried for assault and battery to testify in their own defence; making parties applying to set aside tax levies, sales, certificates and deeds, and bringing other suits of that character, pay their own costs.

The Assembly bill, providing for raising local bounties to volunteers was made the special order for 11 o'clock each day till disposed of.

Senator Van Wyck introduced a resolution in regard to the care of Wisconsin soldiers in the field and in hospitals, which was adopted.

Assembly.—A resolution was offered by Mr. Forsythe for a select committee to inquire what legislation is necessary to secure greater efficiency in the several Wisconsin agencies to look after our sick and wounded soldiers.

General bills were introduced to amend section 90 of chapter 18, Revised Statutes, respecting assessments; to appropriate $327 to W. P. Stone for services as Chaplain of the 27th Wisconsin; to repeal chapter 227 of the laws of 1860, respecting prisons; to secure a correct State enrollment; to confer the land grant on the Appleton, Lake St. Croix & Lake Superior Railroad; to amend section 37 of chapter 19, Revised Statutes. Also, a memorial to Congress to devide the State into two judicial districts, by creating a Western District.

Bills were passed appropriating $5,000 to the State Prison, and providing a general law under which towns cities and villages may raise a bounty of $200 for volunteers. After considerable discussion, the Senate memorial to Congress for the establishment of a Naval Depot at Milwaukee was passed without amendment.—Madison Journal.

VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL CONCERT.

WIMMERSTEDT & CO.,

Will give a Concert at

LAPPIN'S HALL

On Friday Ev'g, Jan, 27th, 1865.

A. R. WIMMERSTEDT, recently from Sweden, is acknowledged to be second only to his fellow countryman the renowned Thalberg in his performance on the Piano Forte. He has proved himself equally successful on the Violin and Flute, and as a musical curiosity will play a beautiful duet on the Piano and Flute at the same time. As a musical composer Mr. Wimmerstedt is well known in America as well as in Europe and to prove his capacity extemporaneously, will play a set of variations to any air which may be handed to him by the audience.

MR. LUNDBERG has established his reputation as a composer and performer on the Guitar by a long residence in this Country.

THE MISSES JOHNSTON have recently made their debut as public singers in Chicago, and in the manner in which they have been received is a fair test of their excellence it is fair to presume they will meet with a cordial reception on the part of the public wheresoever their voices may be heard.

The concert commences at 8 o'clock. Doors open at 7. Tickets for sale at Darling's, Wilson's and at the doors. Admission, 50 cents. Reserved Seats 75 cents.

THE WAR FOR THE UNION!

REPORTED CAPTURE OF REBS. IN SOUTH CAROLINA!

GREAT BRIDGE ON WELDON ROAD SWEPT AWAY!

REBEL DEMONSTRATION ON THE JAMES!

RETURN OF MR. BLAIR!

Rumors of an Armistice!

FROM RICHMOND.

NEW YORK, January 27.—Resolutions requesting Jeff. Davis to appoint commissioners to negotiate with the government at Washington for peace were presented in the rebel House of Representatives a few days ago and referred to the committee on foreign relations by an almost unanimous vote.

The Herald's correspondent in his account of the rebel demonstration on the James river says the notorious pirate Semmes is reported to have commanded the expedition. The rebels believed all our iron-clads were at Wilmington and that we had a few wooden vessels in the river. They intended to force their way through and destroy the enormous amount of shipping and supplies collected at City Point and Bermuda Hundreds. There is no doubt that the rebels intended co-operation with their land forces as extensive movements have been observed in Lee's army and Petersburg.

The fleet consisted of three iron clads, three wooden rams and two smaller wooden vessels.

The Richmond Whig of the 24th, says nothing has been offered the South which it can accept, and these peace movements show the Yankee Government to be really convinced of its inability to carry on the war to a successful issue.

The rebel House has proposed a sweeping measure on the subject of exemption. It repeals what is known as the Legare exemption cause, limits the exemption of mail contractors, and revokes all exemptions and details heretofore made by the President and Secretary of war of persons fit for active service and not within certain particulars.

FROM THE JAMES.

The Tribune's Washington special says notwithstanding the denial attributed to Gen. Meade that he had been removed from the command of the Army of the Potomac, it is now understood that the two armies of the James and Potomac have been consolidated, and that Sheridan has been selected to command them, and that another command or new duties have been assigned to Gen. Meade. The time has at last come, to bring about peace with the odds in our favor, and Phil Sheridan is put into the north side of the ring. Big bets are made here that he will knock Lee out of time in the first round.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Late Richmond papers are filled with sharp criticisms upon the situation, showing great disaffection throughout the South. The croakers are denounced as becoming troublesome and the women are urged to frown them down. Union and harmony are menaced, and there has been an arrest of a large number of disloyal citizens by soldiers in Richmond.

FROM SAVANNAH.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The steamer United States from Savannah, brings the report that the national forces near Pocotaligo, South Carolina, had captured 2,000 rebels and their artillery.

The steam ship Roderic Clyde with her cargo of food contributed by the people of this city for the sufferers of Savannah, had reached the latter place and the distribution of her supplies had been commenced. The Mayor of Savannah in his speech accepting the donation, warmly thanked the people of the North for their liberality and paid a high compliment to General Geary, Military Governor of the city, and the officers and men under his command for their wise and impartial administration of affairs and the good order they have preserved.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, January 27.—House.—A bill for the relief of certain collectors and surveyors of the customs was passed

Stevens, from the Ways and Means Committee, reported a bill to restrain and regulate the issue of notes by national banks, viz., on capital not exceeding $500,000, 90 per cent.; on $400,000, 80 per cent.; on $300,000, 60 per cent. Postponed till Monday next.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The examination of the Old Capital prisoners show that officers are and have been confined there for months without knowing what were the charges against them.

A new deficiency bill is to be reported in the House containing the twenty per cent claimed.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

NEW YORK, January 27.—The Herald's Newbern, N. C., correspondent states that the important bridge on the Weldon Railroad, over Roanoke River, was almost entirely swept away by the late freshets. This is a very serious interference with the transportation of rebel army supplies. It is said that months will be required to replace it. Large numbers of runaway slaves are constantly coming into the Union lines in North Carolina for the purpose of enlisting in the army.

FROM EUROPE.

PORTLAND, Jan. 27.—The steamer Hibernian from Liverpool the 13th has arrived; news unimportant.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 12.—Cotton opened dull with heavy decline, closed better, with decline of 11d., on week.

FROM CANADA.

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—The Burleigh case was decided this morning. Chief Justice Draper and three associates were unanimous in opinion that the prisoners should be given up.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—The Democratic Press, a Democratic paper of this city, which is likely to be well acquainted with the views of Dr. Gwin, and his friends in this city, who are numerous, publishes the following statement: We have refrained from indulging in speculations or expressing any opinion in regard to the many reports and rumors relating to the position and designs of Dr. Gwyn in Mexico, until we could give the exact facts and indisputably vouch for them. This we are now prepared to do, by information received from Barclay Henly and two accredited agents of Dr. Gwyn. Under the protection of the Emperor of Mexico, Maximillian, he has conveyed by trust deed, to the Emperor Louis Napoleon, Sonora, Sanitala, and other northern States of Mexico.

Dr. Gwyn has drawn up a code of laws which has been approved by the Emperor of the French, of the most liberal kind, guaranteeing civil and religious liberty, providing for preemption purchase of the public lands, and regulating the terms of occupation and the use of the mines. The Emperor of the French guarantees a military force under the direction of the Governor General sufficient to maintain the public peace and defend the people of the State against internal and external force. The policy of Dr. Gwyn, which has the approval of both Emperors, is to encourage emigration from the American States by offering the most liberal terms to settlers in order to bring intelligent industry, energy and enterprise to the development of the well known resources of that region so highly favored by the national advantages of soil, climate and mineral wealth, and to form an enlightened and substantial population which will assure permanency and security, and give strength and power to defend the State from fillibustering expeditions which the unappropriated lands have heretofore invited.

Gen Henly is associated with Mayor C. Ridge and both will act as agents of Dr. Gwyn. They are here furthering emigration to that region.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—Since the marked decline in gold in New York and the corresponding decline of prices, the value of merchandize here has proportionately advanced and the tendency is still upward, confidence being strong as to the future of our markets.

The mining and agricultural prospects in California, Oregon and Nevada promise increased yields.

The British Columbia and VanCouvers Island journals are agitating the subject of forming a union between these two colonies. Public meetings are also being held for the same purpose.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, January 26.—Vice Admiral Porter is so much pleased with General Terry and the manner in which he conducted his part of the operations before Fort Fisher, as to deem it worthy of a special dispatch. He says, "A timid man would have hesitated to attack the works by assault no matter what assistance he might have had from other quarters, but General Terry never for an instant hesitated, and though I feel somewhat flattered at the confidence he reposed in my judgment, I am quite ready to believe that he acted on his own ideas as to what was proper to be done in the matter and was perfectly satisfied to judge without the advice of any one. Throughout the affair his conduct was marked by the greatest desire to be successful, not for the sake of personal considerations but for the cause in which we are all alike engaged.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The important station and grain depot of the overland mail contractors at Julesburg on the Platte river, has been abandoned by all except one of the men in charge, in consequence of the Indian massacre in the neighborhood. At last accounts the savages had not attacked the station and it is now hoped it will be saved as Maj. Gen. Curtis who commands the troops on the overland route, telegraphs from Ft. Leavenworth as follows: My troops are seven days out from Cotton Wood Springs, hunting Indians. No need of leaving Julesburg which must be held. The above was sent in reply to one of several telegrams from contractor Holiday, urgently appealing for protection for the mail stations, and stating that if Julesburg should be sacked the overland mail must be suspended until the spring grass is sufficiently advanced to afford subsistence to the live stock of the Company. Cotton Wood station is 105 miles east of Julesburg.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The House today was exclusively occupied with the consideration of private bills.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, January 26.—The Navy Department to-day received the following from Admiral Porter:

NORTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON, U. S. FLAG SHIP MALVERN, OFF SMITHVILLE, N. C., January 20, 1865.

In my last I informed you that Fort Caswell had been blown up and evacuated in consequence of the fall of Fort Fisher. I sent Lieut. Cushing around in the Monticello, to the Western Bar to ascertain what had taken place, and to obtain aid from the officers in command of the New York and Vicksburg.

Lieut. Cushing did not obtain the aid he required, for what reason I have not yet learned, but with his usual energy he pushed on and found Fort Caswell had been blown up, Bald Head Fort destroyed and Fort Shaw also, and Fort Campbell, to the westward of Caswell, abandoned. All these forts mounted 9 and 10-inch guns and Armstrong 150-pounders.

Lieutenant Cushing then pushed into Smithville, after hoisting the flag of the Union over Fort Caswell. The next thing I saw was the flag waving over Smithville, which the rebels had left in a great hurry after they saw our boats approaching, leaving everything in the beautiful heavy fort uninjured, and two 9-inch guns only spiked in the fort at Deep Water Point. In the meantime I had succeeded in getting one gunboat, the Tacony, over the rip and interior bar, and sent her up to Reeves' Point to disable the guns at that place, about three miles on the west side of the river, above Fort Fisher.

Thus in 24 hours after the fall of Fort Fisher and its outworks, all the formidable chain of forts on this river at its entrance, built to keep out anything, have fallen into our hands. They are garrisoned for the present with sailors. I can scarcely give a description of these works. They are certainly the most formidable and the best built earthworks I ever saw, and do credit to the engineer who planned them. Fort Caswell is of the same shape as it was before it fell into rebel hands, except that the rebels have covered its walls with earth on the outside, and made them almost impervious to shot and shell. It is many respects stronger than Fort Fisher, and harder to take by assault. Still it could be taken, and the rebels knew it. Three or four gunboats outside would soon have started them out. I have had great difficulty in getting the gunboats over the bar and rips, and only succeeded this morning in getting the last one through.

The rebels left plenty of good stores and provisions and our men are now subsisting on them. I send you a list of the forts that have fallen into our hands since Fort Fisher, with the name and caliber of their guns.

We have found here in each fort an Armstrong gun, with the broad arrow on it and the name, "Sir William Armstrong," marked in full. As the British Government claims the exclusive right to those guns, it would be interesting to know how they came into forts held by Southern rebels.

I find that immense quantities of provisions, stores, and clothing have come through this port. I am almost afraid to mention the amount, but it is enough to supply over 60,000 men. It is all English. They have, however, received the last cargo. No more will ever come this way.

We picked up a telegram from Gen. Lee to his subordinate here, saying that if Forts Fisher and Caswell were not held he would have to evacuate Richmond. He says most truly, and I should not be at all surprised if he left it any moment. We have plenty of force to hold this place against the whole Southern Confederacy. I have 250 guns bearing on the narrow strip of land where our troops are heavily entrenched.

There are vessels in the river and outside, and we only hope they will attempt to retake it. Ten thousand men in Fort Fisher, with the guns of the squadron, would hold this place a long time. We find this a better place to catch blockade runners than outside. I had the blockade runners lights lit last night, and was obliging enough to answer their signals, whether right or wrong we don't know. Two of them, the Stag and Charlotte, from Bermuda, loaded with arms, Blankets, etc., came in. D. D. PORTER.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 24.—The gunboat Advance from Fort Fisher, with a portion of the crews of the blockade runners Flag and Charlotte captured on the 21st inst., while endeavoring to run into Wilmington with cargoes of rifles, blankets &c., being ignorant of the occupation of Fort Fisher by our forces. The night before the capture of their vessels, the blockade runner Owl commanded by Capt. Moffat, came very near making a similar mistake, but suspecting something wrong as is supposed in the signal ligths of our forces, made her escape and succeeded in eluding the vigilence of our cruisers on the elert for blockade runners. Another blockade runner was, however, captured last Sunday morning off Fort Fisher, but her name was not ascertained.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—It is reported that Blair returned last night. The event excited little attention.

A Richmond dispatch of the 25th says the city was full of rumors yesterday morning to the effect that an armistice of 90 days had been agreed upon between the Confederate and the United States. Those stories were the offspring of idle fancies. So far from there being an armistice between the belligerents, there was more of active war preparations yesterday on the line below here, than has been visible for some time.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 25.—A steamer arrived to-day from Fort Fisher with rebel prisoners and mails and dispatches from our forces in that vicinity.

Nothing important has transpired. Heavy guns are being mounted at City Point and other places, to oppose the rebel fleet should it again attempt to pass these points.

The Ironsides and Atlanta were ordered up James river last evening.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, January 26.—The gold market is unsteady and but for the demand for cash gold, the price would probably decline. Quotations have fluctuated between $2.07 and $2.04.

OFFICE OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, Hartford, Conn., Jan. 2d, 1865.

HENRY ROGERS, ESQ., DEAR SIR:—At a meeting of the Directors of this Company held at this Office this day, the following vote was unanimously passed:

"That a dividend of 50 per cent. of Annual premiums be declared to holders of policies issued by the Phœnix Mutual Life Insurance Company in 1861, and that said dividend be paid on next or fourth annual renewals of said policies."

A dividend of 50 per cent. is seldom declared by Mutual Companies, and still more seldom we believe at their first making of dividends; but our prosperity has been so marked, more particularly in the year just ended, that the Directors of this Company felt themselves fully justified in passing the above vote.

It is the wish of the Directors that our members should feel that they are as liberally treated as they could be by any other safe Company, and they hope that on the recurrence of another new year, they will find themselves in a position to warrant their voting a dividend equally large. Yours very Truly,
E. FESSENDEN, President.

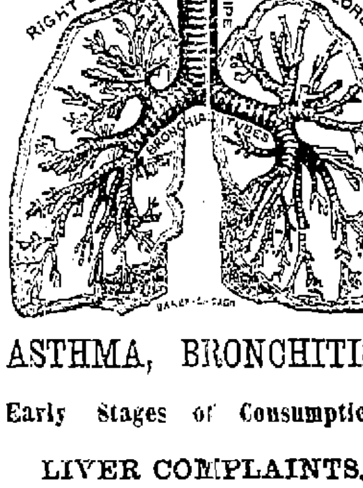
CATARRH, THROAT DISEASES!



ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS!

Early Stages of Consumption!

LIVER COMPLAINTS,

Diseases of Women!

And all other Complaints that Lead to Consumption,

Are treated by DR HALE, at the

Wisconsin Throat & Lung Institute,

Myers' Block, Janesville,

by a new method, and with remedies that are eminently successful in the above class of chronic diseases.

The thinking and unbiased portion of the community will appreciate the great advantage of a permanent and reliable Institute for the cure of chronic diseases that usually baffle the skill of the general practitioner.

Catarrh, that great promoting cause of Consumption in the Northwest, always gives way upon application of the new remedies. Dr. Hale has never encountered a case of this disease he could not cure. The present season is very favorable for applying proper remedies; delays are dangerous. Your case may be cured this month, not next, to-day, not to-morrow.

All who are suffering from any of the diseases Dr. Hale makes a speciality in treating, should at least call and investigate the new system for themselves. No person of good sense and sound judgment will, without full and careful investigation, denounce as "humbug" that which claims to possess merit.

Dr. Hale takes pleasure in referring to the following responsible parties, citizens of Janesville, who can speak knowingly as to the efficacy of Dr. Hale's treatment, not to mention hundreds of others in the Northwest that have been cured:

M. Schuyler, proprietor of the Schuyler House; Dewitt Davis, N. G. Keniston, D. R. Stout, F. J. Tupper Ellis Doty, Job printer, J. D. Rayner, W. H. Mann, E. R. Beckley, N. Rowe, John Kerr, J. F. Drake, Wm. Hyzer, Mrs. W. W. Wheeler, Mrs. C. J. Cheney, Miss Belle Shattuck, Miss N. Wiley.

The list could be extended to an indefinite length, but the above will suffice.

WHO WANTS A CLERK?—One that is posted in book keeping, a good writer, and has just returned from three years service in the army. Enquire at the Gazette Office.

The Two Broad Street Clerks.

BY MRS. E. S. N. PAYNE.

[For the Gazette.]

"There!" exclaimed Edwin Harper, as he closed the door upon the last retreating customer, "there, thank fortune! that's the end of another day of drudgery;" and with an air of petulent weariness he proceeded to secure the doors and windows against the entrance of nocturnal visitants, and then turned his steps toward a little room at the rear of the store, where the senior clerk, Phillip Hayden, was leisurely awaiting him. This little room had been neatly fitted up by the proprietor for the use of his two favorite clerks, with all the usual appointments of a bachelor's sanctum. Phillip had already robed himself in dressing-gown and slippers, and, seated in a stuffed arm-chair, with one limb carelessly thrown over the arm, his elbow resting on his knee, and his hand supporting his head, was leisurely awaiting his companion. Edwin proceeded as far as the door, threw a hurried glance around the room, then turned and looked back upon the empty counters and the almost interminable rows of shelves, filled to their utmost capacity with dry goods of every description, and after scanning them a few moments, passed into the room, with the exclamation, "what a contemptible business!" After the usual preliminaries, he took possession of the other armchair, and laying his slippered feet upon the table opposite, resigned himself to the soothing influence of the "fragrant Havanna."

But Edwin was not in his usual mood, his thoughts would not ascend upon the dooev columns which rose up before him, he could not conjure up the airy castles, the pleasing phantoms, and clothe them with those attractive forms which had hitherto beguiled so many hours of weariness. The puffs of smoke loomed up black and heavy, and were speedily dissolved; and his thoughts fell back with a cold, dead weight upon his heart. At length with a gesture of impatience he cast aside his cigar, saying, "I'm tired of this whole thing. It's of no use for a fellow to spend the best part of his life in just living. Now I work like a dog every day, and what does it amount to?"

"Well, Ed., in the first place is amounts to just this, an opportunity to gain a thorough knowledge of mercantile pursuits, which is really worth more than bank stock, because, without such knowledge money is but of little worth. Then again, you have a good salary."

"A good salary! I tell you Phill, no young man can be anything in society and live on six hundred dollars a year, I know." A quiet smile illuminated the countenance of Phillip. He had been long watchful of the habits of his friend; saw where he was about to make a failure, and with the kindness of an elder brother, resolved to aid him to escape from the danger. "I perceive," said he, "that we are both aiming at the same result, and that is, a good foundation on which to build a future prosperity, but we are pursuing a widely different path to attain it. Every man is prompted to action by some motive and for the attainment of some specific object. It is yours, as you have frankly told me, to secure a partnership with Mr. Ellerton and also the companionship of his only child; now I think your object is a laudable one. Laura is a fine girl, and Ellerton is a wealthy man, and it is certainly very desirable to gain the position of son-in-law and partner of the old gentleman, but you and Laura are both young, and I think he is wise in requiring two years of preparation before you assume so great responsibilities. In the meantime use every exertion to make yourself thoroughly acquainted with the details of mercantile pursuits, make it your first great object to make yourself competent, and with economy you need never fear but that your salary is all sufficient."

"Well, really, Mr. Phillip, you talk like a book, and I suppose you are correct, but I don't see how I'm going to lessen my expenses; I'm at my wits' end to get along now."

"Well, I can tell you one thing," said Phillip, "you can use patience instead of cigars, it is worth more and costs much less."

"Oh, fiddlesticks, Phil., what's a cigar?"

"I grant you Ed., that a cigar costs little, but you know the old maxim, 'many mickles make a muckle,' and if you would make a memorandum of every one you use, you would be surprised at the amount, in six months—at all events, it would be more than all the stock I had when I commenced banking operations."

"Banking operations!" exclaimed Edwin, "are you a stockholder? But then," he added, "I suppose you had a rich father to help you."

"Edwin, on the contrary I have had no help at all, except the judicious counsel and consistent example of the best of parents. My father's maxim was, 'My son, you must creep before you can walk—you must walk before you can run—if you would have much, take care of the little.' So I gathered up my pennies and when I had fifty cents, I put it aside, as banking capital—it formed a nucleus, and many additions were made to it, that would, otherwise have been foolishly spent. I don't think I shall ever feel as rich again, as I did when I found myself in possession of five dollars. You think Ed, you cannot live on six hundred dollars a year, but it has never cost me five, and to show you that I have not been niggardly, I have given an average of thirty dollars a year, ever since I've had a salary, to benevolent purposes, have maintained a respectable exterior, and have denied myself no necessary indulgences—I attend public lectures, musical concerts, &c., when my business permits, but the circus, theatres, balls, &c., never; because, though affording present entertainment, they provide no permanent good, and I can purchase more good with my money, elsewhere."

"Heigh ho, well Phil., I believe you are more than half right. I wish I had begun so—oh, by the way, what do you do with your money? where is your bank that you talk about?"

"Well, the most of it is in the earth—safe place, isn't it? no danger of bank failures."

Edwin's look of profound amazement provoked a hearty laugh, after which Phillip added, "Well, to be serious, I will tell you frankly. A year ago, when I had my little summer vacation, I went, with a friend, into Illinois, and purchased 160 acres of prairie land, without improvements. It is beautifully located, and I have engaged a man living near, to prepare and enclose with fence a few acres for cultivation, and build a small house. I have also engaged a housekeeper, who has no rich father to set me up in independence, but she fully sympathizes with me in my efforts—has made herself thoroughly and practically acquainted with the details of housekeeping, and has been, the last year, engaged at a good salary, in teaching school. Next spring we propose to enter upon a life partnership, and retire to our prairie home. When you make your wedding tour with the wealthy and accomplished Miss Ellerton, or, begging your pardon, Mrs. Harper, please give us a call in our humble home."

"Believe me, Phillip, nothing could afford me more pleasure."

The friends seperated for the night. The discussion of the subject, involving the interests of a lifetime was frequently renewed, until the coming spring separated them for a term of years. After Phillip's retirement, Edwin became, more than ever, restive, under the restraint of limited resources, and his importunities joined with Laura's induced Mr. Ellerton to consent to their marriage at an earlier day. In one year from the time Phillip left them, the union was celebrated with all the pomp and circumstance becoming the marriage of the only child of a wealthy merchant. Edwin was duly installed as junior partner of the firm, and being relieved from the fetters of a limited purse, his affairs moved on swimmingly, and if he gave an occasional thought to his old friend it was attended with the comforting reflection that his cautions were needless. He often told Laura he did not envy Phillip his farmer's life with his school-ma'am wife. Mr. Ellerton was disappointed; he had expected that Edwin's promotion would inspire him with earnestness in the prosecution of the business in which he had a joint interest, and that he should be somewhat relieved from the oppressive cares with which he was burdened; but it was not so. Edwin possessed the ability, but not the disposition to become a judicious and skillful financier. He preferred the pleasure of enjoyment, to the labor of acquirement. And so, one partner devoted himself assiduously to labor, the other, to pleasure.

Six years passed harmoniously and prosperously away, when, one day the entire community were electrified with the report that one of the principal banks had exploded, and that it was a hopeless and irremediable failure. The announcement was as unexpected as a clap of thunder in a clear sky, for it was an institution that ranked first in the confidence of the community. Mr. Ellerton had made large deposits in the bank, and when the report reached him, he hastened to visit the wreck, and, with multitudes of others, found his worst fears confirmed. He returned to his home a ruined man. A further investigation only revealed the fact that most of his debtors were involved in the same ruin with himself. He made an honorable adjustment of his affairs and retired to more private life. Edwin now found himself leaning upon a broken staff, and was compelled to return again to the humble condition of a clerk. Mr. Ellerton found employment in a large commercial house, and eventually secured for Edwin a situation as traveling agent. He had been thus employed for several months, and was on his return from an extended tour through northern Illinois, when he approached one of the most desirable situations he had yet seen. He could not resist the desire for a more leisurely survey, and dismounting, secured his horse, and entered upon a neat gravel walk which led to the front door of a little white cottage. On entering he called for a glass of water, and after some comments upon the beauty of the situation, inquired if it was for sale. "I think not," was the reply of the hostess, "I do not think my husband could be induced to dispose of it at any price." "May I inquire the name of the proprietor?" "Phillip Hayden," was the reply. Edwin gave an involuntary start, and immediately inquired, "Is he at home? Can I see him?" A little rosy-cheeked boy ran to the door saying, "I will go call papa."

He soon returned with him, and upon his entrance, "the two clerks" met, with a cordial grasp of the hand, and the mutual exclamation, Philip Hayden! Edwin Harper! revealed to Mrs Hayden who was their guest, even before an introduction. Edwin passed the night, and Phillip showed him his beautiful farm, now in a high state of cultivation, his bountiful orchard, his profusion of vines with their delicious fruit, his flocks and herds, the abundance of flowers and shrubbery, and the evening was passed in company with his intelligent, cheerful wife and two charming little ones. Edwin retired, but not to sleep. He now saw fully revealed, the wisdom of Phillip's course. In the morning after relating his own history and preparing to depart, he grasped Phillip's hand and said, "I wish I had commenced banking on your system." Phillip replied, "it is not too late now; you know I commenced with half a dollar."

Retaliation in Congress.

The subject of retaliating upon the rebels for the cruel outrages practiced upon the Union prisoners now in their hands, has been vigorously and warmly discussed for some days in the Senate. As might be expected, there is a diversity of opinion in relation to adopting retaliatory measures, even among the warmest and most reliable Union men in Congress. The old law of an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, seems to suit poor human nature much better than that forgiving spirit inculcated in the gospels, and it is in keeping with the debauched condition of public sentiment incident to a time of war, that we find grave senators advocating a measure, which, if adopted, must degrade us in the eyes of all civilized nations. It is true that the cruel and barbarous treatment of our poor soldiers in the prison pens of the South, is one of the hardest things to bear that have grown out of this inhuman and unnatural strife, but we trust the day will never come when our Government will sink itself to a level with Confederate brutality by adopting their accursed and fiendish regulations for the treatment of rebel prisoners now in our hands. If retaliation in kind could reach the responsible agents of rebel cruelty in the South, we should be glad to see the axe of justice fall with full force upon them, but it will not; and we may torture rebel prisoners until our thirst for vengeance is appeased, only to find that our cruelty has failed to mitigate the sufferings of a single Union prisoner. A military commandant in the field may be justified in adopting special measures of a retaliatory nature for the protection of his soldiers and the people under his protection, which a nation could not adopt without disgrace and dishonor. Senator Sumner has put the whole argument in a nut shell in the following resolution which he introduced during the late debate upon this important question:

Resolved, That any attempted imitation of rebel barbarism in the treatment of prisoners would be plainly impracticable on account of its inconsistency with the sentiments of humanity, that it would be injurious at home, for it would barbarize the whole community; that it would be utterly useless, for it could not affect the cruel authors of the revolting conduct which we seek to overcome; that it would be immoral, because it proceeded from vengeance alone; that it could have no other result than to degrade the national character and the national name, and to bring down upon our country the condemnation of history, and that being thus impracticable, useless, immoral and degrading, it must be rejected as a measure of retaliation, precisely as the barbarism of roasting and eating prisoners is always rejected by civilized powers.

A photograph of old John Brown wreathed in laurels, is now hanging in the parlor of the mansion formerly belonging to H. A. Wise, who hung the original.

The Pope's Letter.

In the excitement of our own affairs, the American public should not overlook the grand "Declaration of War" just made by the Pope of Rome against the ideas of the Nineteenth Century. We but repeat the voice of the liberal Roman Catholic party through Europe when we say that such a return to the spirit of the Middle Ages has not been made by any public official for more than a hundred years.

We much fear owing to its length, our readers have not read carefully this singular proclamation, and noted its important points. The first general topics on which it touches are "the heresies and errors," the "depraved and monstrous opinions of this most sad age." "These are so much the more detestable, inasmuch as they tend to destroy the influence which the Catholic Church should exercise over individuals, nations and sovereigns, to the end of the world; an influence which has always proved favorable as well to religion as to civil affairs."

It laments especially the exclusion of religion from the direction of human society, and "the denial of the duty of coercing the violators of the Catholic religion by authorized penalties." Liberty of conscience and of worship are declared to be a delirium, and liberty of the press and speech—or in the words of the letter, "the liberty unrestrained by ecclesiastical or civil authority of manifesting or declaring any thought whatever by speech, print, or any other mode,"—is denominated "the liberty of perdition." The new assaults against monastic institutions are rebuked in the severest terms, and these are upheld as offering the mode of life most commended by the apostles and the fathers.

Democracy is indignantly denounced, and it is denied that "the will of the people, as manifested by what is called public opinion, or in any manner, should constitute the supreme law; and that accomplished facts, for the reason that they are accomplished, should retain the force of law." Popular education is discovered to be one of the worst heresies of the age, and the exclusion of the Catholic Church from the instruction of youth is described as an attempt "to deceive and deprave the inexperienced youth."

The temporal power of the Pope is asserted with as much confidence and zeal as it might have been by Gregory VII., and the Encyclical is most of all severe against "the marked impudence of those who would subject the supreme authority of the Church and of the Holy See, committed to it by Christ the Lord, and who deny all the rights of the same Church and See over things appertaining to external order."

Secret societies are thundered against, and it is maintained that the church is "competent to punish with temporal punishments the violators of its laws," or, in other words, to put down all creeds or associations which do not recognize its authority. Unitarianism is bitterly reprobated; and inasmuch as purity of heart is needful for the success of our petitions to Heaven, "a plenary indulgence" is conceded "to both sexes in the Catholic world for the space of one month only, till the end of 1865."

The language, which we have already given textually, is singularly violent and full of epithets, and the citations from the fathers, which must support the positions taken, to any logical or philosophical mind, have the most childish and unreal air.

This remarkable document is taken by the liberal Catholics of France and Italy, to be an effort, as the Siecle expresses it, "to reconstitute mortmain, re-establish religious corporations, subordinate the civil to the eclesiastical power, suppress liberty of conscience, reconstruct a State religion, revive the ancient regime and even the Middle Ages." The Journal des Debats, speaking for the most cultivated Catholics, considers it an attempt "to go back to the time of Gregory VII," and "to interfere in the relations between sovereigns and their subjects, to domineer over one and the other, and enact the arbitrator between governments and their people." The Tempe says, in the name of progressive Catholics, "all hopes of a compromise between the Church and modern society must henceforth be abandoned." The Encyclical Letter will be a great event, but principally for the reason that it will mark the powerlessness and the end of the system that it is endeavoring to galvanize."

The Italia, representing the Catholics of Turin, characterizes the letter of His Holiness as an "anathema launched against civil society, public law, popular institutions and modern liberalism." "The Vatican has abruptly broken only with the principles which govern not only Italy, but France and Liberal Europe."

Every Government in Europe, whether in its reforms in popular education, its philosophical culture, its independence of the temporal power of Rome, its suffrage and its liberty, is assailed in this most extraordinary proclamation. So far as practical influence is concerned, it will fall lifeless on the ear of the Catholic world, and will hereafter be interesting to the student of history, only as the last protest of the representative of the Middle Ages against the spirit of the Nineteenth Century.—New York Times.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM.

This is the most delightful and extraordinary article ever discovered. It changes the sun burnt face and hands to a pearly satin texture of ravishing beauty, imparting the marble purity of youth, and the distingue appearance so inviting in the belle of fashion. It removes tan, freckles, pimples and roughness from the skin, leaving the complexion fresh, transparent and smooth. It contains no material injurious to the skin. Patronized by Actresses and Opera Singers. It is what every lady should have. Sold everywhere.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.

The parties in St. Louis and Cincinnati, who have been Counterfeiting the Mustang Liniment under pretense of proprietorship, have been thoroughly estoped by the Courts. To guard against further imposition, I have procured from the United States Treasury, a private steel plate revenue stamp, which is placed over the top of each bottle. Each stamp bears the fac simile of my Signature, and without which the article is a Counterfeit, dangerous and worthless imitation. Examine every bottle. This Liniment has been in use and growing in favor for many years. There hardly exists a hamlet on the habitable Globe that does not contain evidence of its wonderful effects. It is the best amolient in the world. With its present improved ingredients, its effects upon man and beast are perfectly remarkable. Sores are healed, pains relieved, lives saved, valuable animals made useful, and untold ills assuaged. For cuts, bruises, sprains, rheumatism, swellings, bites, cuts, caked breasts, strained horses, &c., it is a Sovereign Remedy that should never be dispensed with. It should be in every family. Sold by all Druggists.

LYON'S KATHAIRON.

Kathairon is from the Greek word "Kathro," or "Kathairo," signifying to cleanse, rejuvenate and restore. This article is what its name signifies. For preserving, restoring and beautifying the human hair it is the most remarkable preparation in the world. It is again owned and put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill and attention which gave it a sale of over one million bottles per annum.

It is a most delightful Hair Dressing.
It eradicates scurf and dandruff.
It keeps the head cool and clean.
It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy.
It prevents the hair from falling off and turning gray.
It restores hair upon bald heads.

Any lady or gentleman who values a beautiful head of hair should use Lyon's Kathairon. It is known and used throughout the civilized world. Sold by all respectable dealers.

DOTY'S CLOTHES-WASHERS

Are SIMPLE, DURABLE & CHEAP,

MAKE WASHING EASY,

And SAVE CLOTHES.

These Washers were exhibited at the great New England Fair of 1863, won the admiration of thousands, and were awarded a splendid Diploma; also at the Wisconsin and Pennsylvania State Fairs of 1864, they were awarded the first premium.

To Wool Growers!

Wool fleeces may be washed in these Machines at the rate of a fleece in two minutes, without tearing them apart, and the wool brings the price of tub-washed wool, which is five o'eight cents per pound more than that washed on the sheep. This is very important to every wool grower.

They are recommended as the Very Best in Solon Robinson's great new work, "Facts for Farmers," by ORANGE JUDD, proprietor of the American Agriculturist and by other prominent men.

It gives us great pleasure to be able to afford these great household blessings at the following comparatively trifling cost, which is a reduction of about 20 per cent. on former prices:

Small Size, at Janesville,	$ 9.50
Family " " "	10.50
Hotel " " "	13.50

The above prices include Faucet. Machines with plug instead of faucet, 50 cents less.

Full Directions for Using are Attached to Each Machine.

Any person purchasing a Washer of us may return the same and have the purchase money refunded, if, after four weeks fair trial according to directions, it fails to give satisfaction.

Many of our Washers are now in use in Janesville, and we subjoin the following testimonials:

From Rev. G. W. Lawrence:

MR. DOTY—I confess I have been quite skeptical in regard to the utility of washing machines, until we gave yours a trial. Having tested it thoroughly, we are fully prepared to say, unsolicited, that we regard it as a capital machine. The principle upon which it works is the true one—removing the dirt effectually without injuring the clothes in the slightest manner. My wife endorses it heartily as a labor-saving machine, and considers it truly a "Paragon." With "Doty's Paragon Clothes Washer," and the "Universal Clothes Wringer," washing day is no longer dreaded as in days of yore. G. W. LAWRENCE.

JANESVILLE, Nov. 11th, 1864.

Messrs. Doty Bros.:

GENTLEMEN—I have had in use one of your Washing Machines since May last. We have tried other inventions, but they have invariably proved worthless, after a few weeks use. Yours is the only invention that has stood a satisfactory test in my family. It works admirably, and is a great labor saving machine; while in point of economy it has no equal. It has more than saved its cost already in the diminished wear of clothing, as compared with any other process of washing with which I am familiar. No family can well afford to be without one. Yours truly,

JANESVILLE, Dec. 10th, 1864. A. PALMER.

Persons unacquainted with the Melodeon and its history, will bear in mind that we are the pioneers and leading manufacturers, not only in the United States, but in the world. We commenced the manufacture of Melodeons in the fall of the year 1847, and since that time have finished and sold

THIRTY THOUSAND!

These instruments are now in use mostly in the United States and Canada, also in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, and the West Indies, and from all these quarters we have the most flattering testimonials of the high estimation in which they are held. At all Industrial Exhibitions, they have invariably been whenever exhibiting in competition with others. We shall take pleasure in forwarding by mail (at our own expense) our Illustrated Catalogue, in which every instrument we manufacture, is fully described and illustrated by elegant engravings.

All Melodeons of our manufacture, either sold by us or dealers in any part of the United States or Canada, are warranted to be perfect in every respect, and should any repairs be necessary before the expiration of five years from the date of sale, we hold ourselves ready and willing to make the same free of charge, provided the injury is not caused by accident or design.

CAUTION.

We daily see advertisements of some new reed instrument, with strange name,) purporting to be superior to Melodeons and School Organs. A new exterior and new name will naturally attract attention; but the public will bear in mind that all Reed Instruments, now manufactured in the United States and Canada, are, as near as they can be made without infringing our patents, copies of our own.

Agents for the sale of our Melodeons can be found in all the principal towns of the United States and Canada. Address either

GOTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystalina,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.

From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1st, 1864.

Gentlemen:—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofland's German Bitters, during a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.
Truly your friend, THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From John E. Withersham, Esq., firm of Withersham and Hutchinson, the celebrated manufacturers of Fancy Iron Works, 259 Canal street:

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz., that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhœa.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific, and, when I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.
Truly yours, JOHN E. WITHERSHAM.
New York, Feb. 2, 1864.

From Julius Lee, Esq., firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

February 8th, 1864.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else had failed.
Yours truly, JULIUS LEE.

From the Hon. Jacob Broom.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7th, 1863.

Gentlemen:—In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequalled tonic and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.
Truly yours, JACOB BROOM, 1707 Spruce.

From Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of the 12th Baptist Church:

PHILADELPHIA, December 26th, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action not only upon the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.
Very respectfully yours, W. D. SEIGFRIED,
No. 254 Shackamaxon Street.

From the Rev. Thos. Winter, D. D., Pastor of Roxbury Baptist Church:

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters. I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially benefitted. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.
Respectfully yours, E. WINTER,
Roxborough, Pa.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks county, Pa.

Dr. C. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's German Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.
Yours, with respect, J. S. HERMAN.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stepping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

ON ALL sides we hear the merits of the Grover & Bakers Sewing-Machine extolled. The ladies declare it the "very best," and prove it to us in so many undeniable facts that we are bound to confess our conviction of the truth of the declaration. What other machine will embroider so beautifully, braid so elegantly, hem so faultlessly, quilt so evenly, stitch so accurately, gather so regularly, operate so easily? None, we conscientiously affirm.

BADGER STATE GRAIN DRILL AND BROAD CAST SOWER, COMBINED.—The Badger State Grain Drill has now been made at Janesville for four years. It is now made with all the improvements which years of experience have suggested.

The Badger State for 1865 can be changed into a Broad Cast Sower and Cultivator in thirty minutes time.

It is now so arranged that by raising the teeth, the feed is shut off, and by letting the teeth down the feed is put on. Again, the Badger State is now and always has been the lightest draft of any drill in the market.

The Badger State is warranted to be as good a drill as any yet made. It is warranted to be as good a broad cast sower as any in market.

The Badger State will plant corn or beans in hills or in drills. It will sow grass seed, clover and flax at the same time that it is sowing other grain. It sows grass seed either behind or before the teeth.

The prices for the Badger State for 1865 will be—9 teeth, $85; 10 do., $90; 11 do., 95; 12 do., 100. Five dollars added for Grass Seeder; $2 added for Broad Caster.

Those wishing to buy a Drill or Broad Caster, will please bear in mind that the Badger State is a good Drill, and also a good Broad Caster, in addition to being a good Corn Planter.

The Badger State is the only combined Drill and Broad Caster in the market.

Please call and examine the Drill, and get a Circular. R. J. RICHARDSON,

DIABETES,

STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING,

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, CATARRH OF THE BLADDER, STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING.

For these diseases it is a truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of the Constitution Water will relieve you like magic.

PHYSICIANS

Have long since given up the use of buchu, cubebs and juniper in the treatment of these diseases, and only use them for the want of a better remedy.

CONSTITUTION WATER

has proved itself equal to the task that has devolved upon it.

DIURETICS

irritate and drench the kidneys, and by constant use soon lead to chronic degeneration and confirmed disease.

We present the Constitution Water to the public with the conviction that it has no equal in relieving the class of diseases for which it has been found so eminently successful for curing; and we trust that we shall be rewarded for our efforts in placing so valuable a remedy in a form to meet the requirements of patient and physician.

IN DYSMENORRHŒA, OR PAINFUL MENSTRUATION, AND MENORRHAGIA, OR PROFUSE FLOWING.

Both diseases arising from a faulty secretion of the menstral fluid—in one case being too little and accompanied by severe pain, and the other a too profuse secretion, which will be speedily cured by the Constitution Water.

That disease known as FALLING OF THE WOMB, which is the result of a relaxation of the ligaments of that organ, and is known by a sense of heaviness and dragging pains in the back and sides, and at times accompanied by sharp, lancinating or shooting pains through the parts, will, in all cases, be removed by this medicine.

There is another class of symptoms arising from IRRITATION OF THE WOMB, which physicians call Nervousness, which word covers up much ignorance, and in nine cases out of ten the doctor does not really know whether the symptoms are the disease, or the disease the symptoms. We can not enumerate them here. I speak more particularly of Cold Feet, Palpitation of the Heart, Impaired Memory, Wakefulness, Flushing of Heat, Languor, Lassitude, and Dimness of Vision.

SUPPRESSED MENSTRUATION.

Which in the unmarried female is a constant recurring disease, and through neglect the seeds of more grave and dangerous maladies are the result; and so much after month passes without an effort being made to assist nature, the suppression becomes chronic, the patient gradually loses her appetite, the bowels are constipated, night sweats come on, and consumption finally ends her career.

CATARRH CURED!

They are treating Catarrh on a new system which is a

SURE CURE FOR THIS DISEASE!

Experience has proved that Catarrh cannot be cured by local treatment alone; hence, the many advertised cures for Catarrh, all of which are local remedies, give relief only while the patient is using them, but never cure.

Understanding the disease and we know it cannot be cured by local treatment alone, therefore, we also prescribe a constitutional remedy to be taken, and by the combined local and constitutional treatment, we are enabled to remove the cause of Catarrh, and thereby effect

A PERMANENT CURE.

THEIR CONSULTATIONS for years have averaged from five to seven thousand a year, which gives them an experience unsurpassed by any, and equalled only by a few.

☞Remember they do not promise to cure all stages of Disease. While all diseases are curable, if taken in season, all stages are not. Your case may be curable this week, not next—to-day, not to-morrow; hence the danger of delay.

No case will be received, when there are any doubts of Cure or Relief.

Our Terms are CASH; hence the money must be sent with all orders for medicines. It costs from five to fifteen dollars per month, to doctor with us, which includes medicines.

Sewing Machines.

WILCOX & GIBBS'

SEWING MACHINE!

Will Stitch, Hem, Fell, Tuck, Cord, Bind, Braid, Quilt and Embroider beautifully. It will, with the finest needle and thread, run from perfect work on the finest Nainsook, over the heaviest beaver cloth and cowhide, with no change of needle, thread or tension.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

will use coarse cotton, linen, silk and twine. It runs easier, faster and is lighter than any other machine. It forms a flat, even and elastic seam, differing from every other stitch, each loop being locked by means of the

"ROTATING HOOK,"

and drawing the twist into the goods, thus securely fastening every stitch, so that the seam will bear to be cut at frequent intervals, and in that case even, the seam is warranted not to rip in wear, and under all circumstances to "survive the washtub." Old worn out family garments, bosoms, pants, dresses, &c., have been submitted to Committees at Fairs where was the greatest competition, and to this stitch premiums have been awarded for its SUPERIORITY, DURABILITY, ELASTICITY and BEAUTY.

A Patented Device prevents the possibility of the machine being run in the wrong direction, or the balance wheel ever wearing or touching the dress. By another ingenious Patent improvement,

The Needle Cannot be Set Wrong,

Thus avoiding the great trouble of other machines. In this it is so easy that a child may set it in the dark with unerring correctness every time.

NO BREAKING OF NEEDLES.

The blade of the needle is less than ⅝ of an inch long, and is straight. It is less than half the length of other machine needles, many of which are curved, therefore more easily bent or broken—a great source of annoyance, expense and trouble. The Hemmer and Feller can never be set wrong. Any one may adjust them in the dark. The hem may be of any width. No other hemmer or feller is like this. It turns the hem on the right or upper side, as you want it.

IT WILL NOT DROP STITCHES;

As the needle is always set right, the blade short and straight does not vibrate, like longer ones.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

Is run by steam at 4000 stitches per minute—other machines only at 400 to 1200, with safety. They are manufactured with

MATHEMATICAL PRECISION,

Hence each part is interchangeable, and can be readily placed in case of accident.

THEY WILL NOT GET OUT OF ORDER

We have known it intimately for several years. Many thousands are already in use here, and so far as we know, not one in family use has ever cost a dime to repair, or ever been out of order at all. They will last a generation, if properly cared for. None who have used it can be persuaded to use any other.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

Works at an instant's notice, and never stops "unaccountably." Not one operator in ten on the Wilcox & Gibbs will break a needle or drop a stitch in a year. The Wilcox & Gibbs in the hands of any one, knows no "skips," "drops," "jumps" or "misses." The soundness, evenness durability and beauty of its stitch

WERE NEVER EQUALED.

Its rapidity, absolute stillness, ease of motion, narrowness and neatness of its Hem and Fell were never approached by any other machine. We can call in any boy or girl from the street, and with three minutes instruction they will set the needle, attach the Hemmer or Feller, and do the work with entire success. A blind girl, with the exception of threading the needle, can do the same. Many ladies owning other first-class machines, come to our office to do their fine hemming and telling on the Wilcox & Gibbs Machine.

The press universally pronounce this the best family sewing machine in the world.

We are General Agents for

BARNUM'S SELF-SEWER,

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is now the largest paper printed in the State, and having the matter published in the DAILY to select from, we challenge comparison with any newspaper in Wisconsin. In correct political doctrine, in reliable market reports, in giving the latest news from all quarters, in literary merit and in local information relating to this city and county, we shall spare no pains to make the WEEKLY GAZETTE worthy of public patronage and support.

The News.

The ship loaded with provisions for the starving people of Savannah, arrived there recently, and the Mayor received the donation in behalf of the city, thanking the people of the North for their liberality and extolling the Federal rule in that ancient city. Doubtless the Mayor finds this pleasanter than "dying in the last ditch." Pity our soldiers in the prison pens of the South couldn't receive a ship load of food.

Large numbers of runaway slaves are constantly coming into the Union lines in North Carolina for the [illegible]pose of enlisting in the army.

The national fo[illegible] Pocotaligo, South Carolina, have captured 2,000 rebels and their artillery.

It is said Lee telegraphed to the officer in command that if Fort Fisher was abandoned he would have to evacuate Richmond. Good bye, Mr. Lee.

The reader will not fail to notice the nice little arrangement Ex-Senator Gwyn, formerly of California, has entered into over in Mexico. What a snug hiding place that will be for Jeff. Davis and his brother rebels to flee to one of these days.

Chief Justice Draper and his other associates have decided that the St. Albans raiders must be given up.

It is stated that Sheridan is to succeed Meade in command of the Army of the Potomac.

The Democracy in the Assembly.

The copperheads in the Assembly are not very loving toward each other. Hadley, of Milwaukee, thinks the city he in part represents, and the respect that is due to the very ample amount of gray hairs which he caries, entitle him to be the leader of the copperhead faction upon the floor. But the irrepressible and loquacious Jones, of Dodge, "don't exactly see it in that light," is disposed to lead himself, and accordingly gives Hadley a lively turn whenever opportunity offers. Jones is the correspondent of the Chicago Times which he thinks is as good a test of copperhead orthodoxy as Hadley can produce, even if the latter does represent the strongest "democratic" (?) city in America. It is said that in a recent debate about the location of a naval depot, Hadley provoked Jones to make some personal allusions to the legislative history of the former, especially to the part he took in the great land grant swindle of 1856, which created a decided sensation on the floor of the House. Jones is at present a little ahead, but Hadley is bound to place the irascible little Dodge county fellow hors de combat, before the close of the session. In the meantime, Abrams, of Brown, [a cute fellow] plays these two would be leaders off, one against the other, and slyly leads his side of the House himself. In this way he secured the nomination for Speaker, and he seems disposed to continue it. The fight is a very pretty one as it now stands.

The Rates of Legal Advertising.

Most publishers in Wisconsin will be somewhat surprised to learn that a bill which has been introduced into the Legislature to raise the rates of legal advertising, is meeting with some opposition, and yesterday was postponed in the Senate for two weeks. We fail to appreciate the reasons for this opposition. The bill in question does not contemplate an increase of rates at all in proportion with the increase of paper, ink, material and labor, as compared with the rates as they now stand. Honorable gentlemen are doubtless aware that there has been a slight advance in most articles of merchandise since the war broke out, and that in no department of business has the increase been greater than that which relates to the publishing business. While paper costs three times what it did three years ago, and ink double what it did then, it is only proposed by the bill in question, to increase the legal rates of printing in a very moderate degree.

We hope the opponents of this just measure may be induced to withdraw their opposition and allow the publishers of the State a reasonable compensation for their labor. It is simply a matter of the strictest justice that the bill should pass.

Mrs. Harvey.

A private letter from Mrs. Harvey from Vicksburg, says, "You may inform the Shopiere and Clinton people that the lint and bandages they sent happened to be all we had in the 'Home' and we used the same with hearts full of gratitude to them."

The soldiers thus supplied were brought in by Gen. Grierson, sick and wounded ones. The carrier of the Vicksburg Whig pays a high compliment to Mrs. Harvey, in his annual address. He says,

But let valor's haughty champions wait,
While love unchallenged passes through the gate;
For where the battle rages high,
Sweet woman stoops with tearful eye,
And o'er the weak and wounded brave
She leans, an angel bright to save.
So beamed Wisconsin's widowed one
When Shiloh's bloody field was done,
Shone like a seraph o'er the angry field,
With faith in Heaven, and love for shield,
Her heart of truth turned battle's harms away,
And angels hovering near to hear an angel pray,
Awoke the glorious concert of the blest,
With praises pure of Harvey of the west:
Whose jewels glistening lovelier far
Than brightest pearls of diamond rare,
Gleam in the soldier's trembling tear,
Polished by sorrow's earnest prayer
Shall shine more glorious than the hero's scroll,
Till Time his latest annals shall unroll!

THE rebels in Texas are apprehensive of an attack on their coast, and are reported to be rallying for defense.

THE WOUNDED SOLDIER BOY.

[For the Gazette.]

Long since had ceased the cannon's roar,
And clang o' arms and trumpets stilled;
The wounded yet among the killed,
Were lying in the frozen gore.

The silver moon her face revealed,
The twinkling stars were beaming bright;
And all were keeping watch that night,
O'er Lookout Mountain battle field.

A youth who was in battle bold,
There, weltered in his blood still flowing;
And though the Aquilon was blowing,
He shivered more from fear than cold:—

Lest friendly aid should come too late,
To stanch the blood, which faint in trying;
He felt as if he then was dying,
And prayed for strength to meet his fate.

Untold, he stealthily had left,
His mother in her grief forlorn;
Yet in the battle, night, or morn,
He sorrowed, that she was bereft

But that conviction, worst in all—
The catalogue, had come too late;
He owned the justice of his fate,
And more, he felt it past recall.

There, trembling lay, in dripping gore,
The Mother's hope and only joy;
She trembled too; but for her boy,
As she had heard the cannon's roar.

He thought of home and then would sigh,
Hope beaming, whispered coming aid;
And then again, it seemed to fade,
For echo only, brought reply.

So keen his ear, he thought it did,
It might have been the moaning wind;
For from the friends he left behind,
He dreamed an answer was forbid.

Disheartened, but exhausted more,
He swooned, revived and then he slept;
And dreamed his mother o'er him wept,
As often she had done before.

When she could not resist his cry,
But caught and clasped him to her breast;
With love maternal him carressed,
And sweetly sang her lullaby.

But soon his happy dream was past,
He woke in gloomy shades of night;
The moon and stars refused their light,
And chilly blew the northern blast.

But when again he turned to meet—
His bitter fate, there came a sigh,
Which for an echo seemed too nigh,
And sent a thrill of joy too sweet.

Once more he thought of coming aid,
Hope lingered on, the last to part;
Then eased the wound,—he felt the smart,
His Mother's hand was on it laid.

On pinions light, from scenes of joy,
Ye Angels—Ministers of Fate;
Come help your sister in her strait,
To save the wounded soldier boy.

For she is looking now for aid,
While to her breast her child is clinging;
As when she lullabies was singing,
Then, come before her hope shall fade.

From Heaven's lofty, mystic dome,
Through azure space, O wing your flight:
On Lookout Mountain top alight,
And take them gently, safely home.

A holy balm the child prepare,
Then mount the skies upon a ray,
Sent for you, from eternal day,
And leave him to a Mother's care.

Legislative Summary.

THURSDAY, Jan. 26th—Senate.—The resolution offered yesterday, reciting that authority to appoint recruiting agents, except second lieutenants, has been taken from the Governor; that there are difficulties about expenses for transportation, subsistence or lodgings, and that under the existing system of recruiting it will be difficult to fill the quota of Wisconsin; and requesting the Secretary of War to give the Governor authority to appoint recruiting agents, was adopted.

Several appropriation and local bills were introduced, also to increase the compensation of sheriffs for keeping prisoners from $2.50 to $3.50 a week.

The general file was considered in committee of the whole, and several bills ordered to a third reading.

Bills were discussed and re-referred, to incorporate the people's Savings Bank at Milwaukee; to repeal the statute allowing parties tried for assault and battery to testify in their own defence; making parties applying to set aside tax levies, sales, certificates and deeds, and bringing other suits of that character, pay their own costs.

The Assembly bill, providing for raising local bounties to volunteers was made the special order for 11 o'clock each day till disposed of.

Senator Van Wyck introduced a resolution in regard to the care of Wisconsin soldiers in the field and in hospitals, which was adopted.

Assembly.—A resolution was offered by Mr. Forsythe for a select committee to inquire what legislation is necessary to secure greater efficiency in the several Wisconsin agencies to look after our sick and wounded soldiers.

General bills were introduced to amend section 90 of chapter 18, Revised Statutes, respecting assessments; to appropriate $527 to W. P. Stone for services as Chaplian of the 27th Wisconsin; to repeal chapter 227 of the laws of 1860, respecting prisons; to secure a correct State enrollment; to confer the land grant on the Appleton, Lake St. Croix & Lake Superior Railroad; to amend section 37 of chapter 10, Revised Statutes. Also, a memorial to Congress to devide the State into two judicial districts, by creating a Western District.

Bills were passed appropriating $5,000 to the State Prison, and providing a general law under which towns cities and villages may raise a bounty of $200 for volunteers. After considerable discussion, the Senate memorial to Congress for the establishment of a Naval Depot at Milwaukee was passed without amendment —Madison Journal.

VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL CONCERT.

WIMMERTTEDT & CO.,
Will give a Concert at
LAPPIN'S HALL
On Friday Ev'g, Jan, 27th, 1865.

A. E. WIMMERSTEDT, recently from Sweden, is acknowledged to be second only to his fellow countryman the renowned Thalberg in his performance on the Piano Forte. He has proved himself equally successful on the Violin and Flute, and as a musical curiosity will play a beautiful duet on the Piano and Flute at the same time. As a musical composer Mr. Wimmerstedt is well known in America as well as in Europe and to prove his capacity extemporaneously, will play a set of variations to any air which may be handed to him by the audience.

MR. LUNDBERG has established his reputation as a composer and performer on the Guitar by a long residence in this Country.

THE MISSES JOHNSTON have recently made their debut as public singers in Chicago, and by the manner in which they have been received is a fair test of their excellence it is fair to presume they will meet with a cordial reception on the part of the public wheresoever their voices may be heard.

The concert commences at 8 o'clock. Doors open at 7. Tickets for sale at Darling's, Wilson's and at the doors. Admission, 50 cents. Reserved Seats 75 cents.

THE WAR FOR THE UNION!

REPORTED CAPTURE OF REBS. IN SOUTH CAROLINA!

GREAT BRIDGE ON WELDON ROAD SWEPT AWAY!

REBEL DEMONSTRATION ON THE JAMES!

RETURN OF MR. BLAIR!

Rumors of an Armistice!

FROM RICHMOND.

NEW YORK, January 27.—Resolutions requesting Jeff. Davis to appoint commissioners to negotiate with the government at Washington for peace were presented in the rebel House of Representatives a few days ago and referred to the committee on foreign relations by an almost unanimous vote.

The Herald's correspondent in his account of the rebel demonstration on the James river says the notorious pirate Semmes is reported to have commanded the expedition. The rebels believed all our iron-clads were at Wilmington and that we had a few wooden vessels in the river. They intended to force their way through and destroy the enormous amount of shipping and supplies collected at City Point and Bermuda Hundreds. There is no doubt that the rebels intended co-operation with their land forces as extensive movements have been observed in Lee's army and Petersburg.

The fleet consisted of three iron clads, three wooden rams and two smaller wooden vessels.

The Richmond Whig of the 24th, says nothing has been offered the South which it can accept, and these peace movements show the Yankee Government to be really convinced of its inability to carry on the war to a successful issue.

The rebel House has proposed a sweeping measure on the subject of exemption. It repeals what is known as the Legare exemption cause, limits the exemption of mail contractors, and revokes all exemptions and details heretofore made by the President and Secretary of war of persons fit for active service and not within certain particulars.

FROM THE JAMES.

The Tribune's Washington special says notwithstanding the denial attributed to Gen. Meade that he had been removed from the command of the Army of the Potomac, it is now understood that the two armies of the James and Potomac have been consolidated, and that Sheridan has been selected to command them, and that another command or new duties have been assigned to Gen. Meade. The time has at last come, to bring about peace with the odds in our favor, and Phil Sheridan is put into the north side of the ring. Big bets are made here that he will knock Lee out of time in the first round.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Late Richmond papers are filled with sharp criticisms upon the situation, showing great disaffection throughout the South. The croakers are denounced as becoming troublesome and the women are urged to frown them down. Union and harmony are menaced, and there has been an arrest of a large number of disloyal citizens by soldiers in Richmond.

FROM SAVANNAH.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The steamer United States from Savannah, brings the report that the national forces near Pocotaligo, South Carolina, had captured 2,000 rebels and their artillery.

The steam ship Roderic Clyde with her cargo of food contributed by the people of this city for the sufferers of Savannah, had reached the latter place and the distribution of her supplies had been commenced. The Mayor of Savannah in his speech accepting the donation, warmly thanked the people of the North for their liberality and paid a high compliment to General Geary, Military Governor of the city, and the officers and men under his command for their wise and impartial administration of affairs and the good order they have preserved.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, January 27.—House.—A bill for the relief of certain collectors and surveyors of the customs was passed.

Stevens, from the Ways and Means Committee, reported a bill to restrain and regulate the issue of notes by national banks, viz., on capital not exceeding $500,000, 90 per cent.; on $400,000, 80 per cent.; on $300,000, 60 per cent. Postponed till Monday next.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The examination of the Old Capital prisoners show that officers are and have been confined there for months without knowing what were the charges against them.

A new deficiency bill is to be reported in the House containing the twenty per cent claimed.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

NEW YORK, January 27.—The Herald's Newbern, N. C., correspondent states that the important bridge on the Weldon Railroad, over Roanoke River, was almost entirely swept away by the late freshets. This is a very serious interference with the transportation of rebel army supplies. It is said that months will be required to replace it. Large numbers of runaway slaves are constantly coming into the Union lines in North Carolina for the purpose of enlisting in the army.

FROM EUROPE.

PORTLAND, Jan. 27.—The steamer Hibernian from Liverpool the 13th has arrived; news unimportant.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 12.—Cotton opened dull with heavy decline, closed better, with decline of 1½d., on week.

FROM CANADA.

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—The Burleigh case was decided this morning. Chief Justice Draper and three associates were unanimous in opinion that the prisoners should be given up.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—The Democratic Press, a Democratic paper of this city, which is likely to be well acquainted with the views of Dr. Gwin, and his friends in this city, who are numerous, publishes the following statement: We have refrained from indulging in speculations or expressing any opinion in regard to the many reports and rumors relating to the position and designs of Dr. Gwyn in Mexico, until we could give the exact facts and indisputably vouch for them. This we are now prepared to do, by information received from Barclay Henly and two accredited agents of Dr. Gwyn. Under the protection of the Emperor of Mexico, Maximilian, he has conveyed by trust deed, to the Emperor Louis Napoleon, Sonora, Sanitala, and other northern States of Mexico.

Dr. Gwyn has drawn up a code of laws which has been approved by the Emperor of the French, of the most liberal kind, guaranteeing civil and religious liberty, providing for preemption purchase of the public lands, and regulating the terms of occupation and the use of the mines. The Emperor of the French guarantees a military force under the direction of the Governor General sufficient to maintain the public peace and defend the people of the State against internal and external force. The policy of Dr. Gwyn, which has the approval of both Emperors, is to encourage emigration from the American States by offering the most liberal terms to settlers in order to bring intelligent industry, energy and enterprise to the development of the well known resources of that region so highly favored by the national advantages of soil, climate and mineral wealth, and to form an enlightened and substantial population which will assure permanency and security, and give strength and power to defend the State from fillibustering expeditions which the unappropriated lands have heretofore invited.

Gen Henly is associated with Mayor C. Ridgo and both will act as agents of Dr. Gwyn. They are here furthering emigration to that region.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—Since the marked decline in gold in New York and the corresponding decline of prices, the value of merchandise here has proportionately advanced and the tendency is still upward, confidence being strong as to the future of our markets.

The mining and agricultural prospects in California, Oregon and Nevada promise increased yields.

The British Columbia and VanCouvers Island journals are agitating the subject of forming a union between these two colonies. Public meetings are also being held for the same purpose.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, January 26.—Vice Admiral Porter is so much pleased with General Terry and the manner in which he conducted his part of the operations before Fort Fisher, as to deem it worthy of a special dispatch. He says, "A timid man would have hesitated to attack the works by assault no matter what assistance he might have had from other quarters, but General Terry never for an instant hesitated, and though I feel somewhat flattered at the confidence he reposed in my judgment, I am quite ready to believe that he acted on his own ideas as to what was proper to be done in the matter and was perfectly satisfied to judge without the advice of any one. Throughout the affair his conduct was marked by the greatest desire to be successful, not for the sake of personal considerations but for the cause in which we are all alike engaged.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The important station and grain depot of the overland mail contractors at Julesburg on the Platte river, has been abandoned by all except one of the men in charge, in consequence of the Indian massacre in the neighborhood. At last accounts the savages had not attacked the station and it is now hoped it will be saved as Maj. Gen. Curtis who commands the troops on the overland route, telegraphs from Ft. Leavenworth as follows: My troops are seven days out from Cotton Wood Springs, hunting Indians. No need of leaving Julesburg which must be held. The above was sent in reply to one of several telegrams from contractor Holiday, urgently appealing for protection for the mail stations, and stating that if Julesburg should be sacked the overland mail must be suspended until the spring grass is sufficiently advanced to afford subsistence to the live stock of the Company. Cotton Wood station is 106 miles east of Julesburg.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The House today was exclusively occupied with the consideration of private bills.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, January 26.—The Navy Department to-day received the following from Admiral Porter:

NORTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON, U. S. FLAG SHIP MALVERN, OFF SMITHVILLE, N. C., January 20, 1865.

In my last I informed you that Fort Caswell had been blown up and evacuated in consequence of the fall of Fort Fisher. I sent Lieut. Cushing around in the Monticello, to the Western Bar to ascertain what had taken place, and to obtain aid from the officers in command of the New York and Vicksburg.

Lieut. Cushing did not obtain the aid he required, for what reason I have not yet learned, but with his usual energy he pushed on and found Fort Caswell had been blown up, Bald Head Fort destroyed and Fort Shaw also, and Fort Campbell, to the westward of Caswell, abandoned. All these forts mounted 9 and 10-inch guns and Armstrong 150-pounders.

Lieutenant Cushing then pushed into Smithville, after hoisting the flag of the Union over Fort Caswell. The next thing I saw was the flag waving over Smithville, which the rebels had left in a great hurry after they saw our boats approaching, leaving everything in the beautiful heavy fort uninjured, and two 9-inch guns only spiked in the fort at Deep Water Point. In the meantime I had succeeded in getting one gunboat, the Tacony, over the rip and interior bar, and sent her up to Reeves' Point to disable the guns at that place, about three miles on the west side of the river, above Fort Fisher.

Thus in 24 hours after the fall of Fort Fisher and its outworks, all the formidable chain of forts on this river at its entrance, built to keep out anything, have fallen into our hands. They are garrisoned for the present with sailors. I can scarcely give a description of these works. They are certainly the most formidable and the best built earthworks I ever saw, and do credit to the engineer who planned them. Fort Caswell is of the same shape as it was before it fell into rebel hands, except that the rebels have covered its walls with earth on the outside, and made them almost impervious to shot and shell. It is many respects stronger than Fort Fisher, and harder to take by assault. Still it could be taken, and the rebels knew it. Three or four gunboats outside would soon have started them out. I have had great difficulty in getting the gunboats over the bar and rips, and only succeeded this morning in getting the last one through.

The rebels left plenty of good stores and provisions and our men are now subsisting on them. I send you a list of the forts that have fallen into our hands since Fort Fisher, with the name and caliber of their guns.

We have found here in each fort an Armstrong gun, with the broad arrow on it and the name, "Sir William Armstrong," marked in full. As the British Government claims the exclusive right to these guns, it would be interesting to know how they came into forts held by Southern rebels.

I find that immense quantities of provisions, stores, and clothing have come through this port. I am almost afraid to mention the amount, but it is enough to supply over 60,000 men. It is all English. They have, however, received the last cargo. No more will ever come this way.

We picked up a telegram from Gen. Lee to his subordinate here, saying that if Forts Fisher and Caswell were not held he would have to evacuate Richmond. He says most truly, and I should not be at all surprised if he left it any moment. We have plenty of force to hold this place against the whole Southern Confederacy. I have 250 guns bearing on the narrow strip of land where our troops are heavily entrenched.

There are vessels in the river and outside, and we only hope they will attempt to retake it. Ten thousand men in Fort Fisher, with the guns of the squadron, would hold this place a long time. We find this a better place to catch blockade runners than outside. I had the blockade runners lights lit last night, and was obliging enough to answer their signals, whether right or wrong we don't know. Two of them, the Stag and Charlotte, from Bermuda, loaded with arms, Blankets, etc., came in. D. D. PORTER.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 24.—The gunboat Advance from Fort Fisher, with a portion of the crews of the blockade runners Flag and Charlotte captured on the 21st inst., while endeavoring to run into Wilmington with cargoes of rifles, blankets &c., being ignorant of the occupation of Fort Fisher by our forces. The night before the capture of their vessels, the blockade runner Owl commanded by Capt. Moffat, came very near making a similar mistake, but suspecting something wrong as is supposed in the signal ligths of our forces, made her escape and succeeded in eluding the vigilence of our cruisers on the alert for blockade runners. Another blockade runner was, however, captured last Sunday morning off Fort Fisher, but her name was not ascertained.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—It is reported that Blair returned last night. The event excited little attention.

A Richmond dispatch of the 25th says the city was full of rumors yesterday morning to the effect that an armistice of 90 days had been agreed upon between the Confederate and the United States. These stories were the offspring of idle fancies. So far from there being an armistice between the belligerents, there was more of active war preparations yesterday on the line below here, than has been visible for some time.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 25.—A steamer arrived to day from Fort Fisher with rebel prisoners and mails and dispatches from our forces in that vicinity.

Nothing important has transpired. Heavy guns are being mounted at City Point and other places, to oppose the rebel fleet should it again attempt to pass these points.

The Ironsides and Atlanta were ordered up James river last evening.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, January 26.—The gold market is unsteady and but for the demand for cash gold, the price would probably decline. Quotations have fluctuated between $2.07 and $2.04.

OFFICE OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, Hartford, Conn., Jan. 2d, 1865.

HENRY ROGERS, Esq., DEAR SIR:—At a meeting of the Directors of this Company held at this Office this day, the following vote was unanimously passed:

"That a dividend of 50 per cent. of Annual premiums be declared to holders of policies issued by the Phœnix Mutual Life Insurance Company in 1861, and that said dividend be paid on next or fourth annual renewals of said policies."

A dividend of 50 per cent. is seldom declared by Mutual Companies, and still more seldom we believe at their first making of dividends; but our prosperity has been so marked, more particularly in the year just ended, that the Directors of this Company felt themselves fully justified in passing the above vote.

It is the wish of the Directors that our members should feel that they are as liberally treated as they could be by any other safe Company, and they hope that on the recurrence of another new year, they will find themselves in a position to warrant their voting a dividend equally large. Yours very Truly,
E. FESSENDEN, President.

The capital and accumulating of this old and favorite Life Insurance Company, amount now to more than $600,000 and we continue to issue endowment, 14 year, 5 year, one payment and Life Policies upon as favorable terms and at lower rates of premium than any other sound Company doing business in the Northwest. Any information can be obtained, with any amount of books and circulars upon application to our agent. Office at W. A. Reynold's Boot and Shoe Store, Janesville, Wis. HENRY ROGERS,

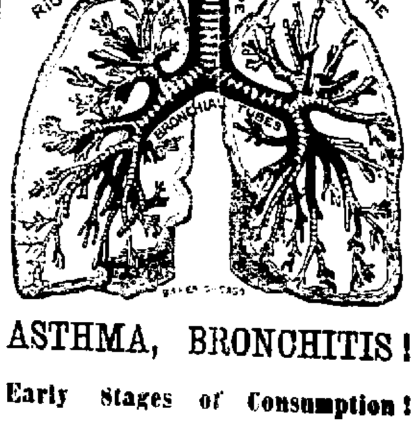
CATARRH, THROAT DISEASES!



ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS!

Early Stages of Consumption!

LIVER COMPLAINTS,

Diseases of Women!

And all other Complaints that Lead to Consumption,

Are treated by DR. HALE, at the

Wisconsin Throat & Lung Institute,

Myers' Block, Janesville,

by a new method, and with remedies that are eminently successful in the above class of chronic diseases.

The thinking and unbiased portion of the community will appreciate the great advantage of a permanent and reliable Institute for the cure of chronic diseases that usually baffle the skill of the general practitioner.

Catarrh, that great promoting cause of Consumption in the Northwest, always gives way upon application of the new remedies. Dr. Hale has never encountered a case of this disease he could not cure. The present season is very favorable for applying proper remedies; delays are dangerous. Your case may be cured this month not next, to-day, not to-morrow.

All who are suffering from any of the diseases Dr. Hale makes a speciality in treating, should at least call and investigate the new system for themselves. No person of good sense and sound judgment will, without full and careful investigation, denounce as "humbug" that which claims to possess merit.

Dr. Hale takes pleasure in referring to the following responsible parties, citizens of Janesville, who can speak knowingly as to the efficacy of Dr. Hale's treatment, not to mention hundreds of others in the Northwest that have been cured:

M. Schuyler, proprietor of the Schuyler House; Dewitt Davis, N. G. Kenlston, D. R. Stout, F. J. Tupper Ellis Doty, job printer, J. D. Hayner, W. H. Mann, E R. Beckley, N. Rowe, John Kerr, J. F. Drake, Wm. Hyzer, Mrs. W. W. Wheeler, Mrs. C. J. Cheney, Miss Belle Shattuck, Miss N. Wiley.

The list could be extended to an indefinite length, but the above will suffice.

WHO WANTS A CLERK?—One that is posted in book keeping, a good writer, and has just returned from three years service in the army.

The Two Broad Street Clerks.

BY MRS. E. S. N. PAYNE.

[For the Gazette.]

"There!" exclaimed Edwin Harper, as he closed the door upon the last retreating customer; "there, thank fortune! that's the end of another day of drudgery;" and with an air of petulent weariness he proceeded to secure the doors and windows against the entrance of nocturnal visitants, and then turned his steps toward a little room at the rear of the store, where the senior clerk, Phillip Hayden, was leisurely awaiting him. This little room had been neatly fitted up by the proprietor for the use of his two favorite clerks, with all the usual appointments of a bachelor's sanctum. Phillip had already robed himself in dressing-gown and slippers, and, seated in a stuffed arm-chair, with one limb carelessly thrown over the arm, his elbow resting on his knee, and his hand supporting his head, was leisurely awaiting his companion. Edwin proceeded as far as the door, threw a hurried glance around the room, then turned and looked back upon the empty counters and the almost interminable rows of shelves, filled to their utmost capacity with dry goods of every description, and after scanning them a few moments, passed into the room, with the exclamation, "what a contemptible business!" After the usual preliminaries, he took possession of the other arm-chair, and laying his slippered feet upon the table opposite, resigned himself to the soothing influence of the "fragrant Havanna."

But Edwin was not in his usual mood, his thoughts would not ascend upon the fleecy columns which rose up before him, he could not conjure up the airy castles, the pleasing phantoms, and clothe them with those attractive forms which had hitherto beguiled so many hours of weariness. The puffs of smoke loomed up black and heavy, and were speedily dissolved, and his thoughts fell back with a cold, dead weight upon his heart. At length with a gesture of impatience he cast aside his cigar, saying, "I'm tired of this whole thing. It's of no use for a fellow to spend the best part of his life in just living. Now I work like a dog every day, and what does it amount to?"

"Well, Ed., in the first place it amounts to just this, an opportunity to gain a thorough knowledge of mercantile pursuits, which is really worth more than bank stock, because, without such knowledge money is but of little worth. Then again, you have a good salary."

"A good salary! I tell you Phill, no young man can be anything in society and live on six hundred dollars a year, I know." A quiet smile illuminated the countenance of Phillip. He had been long watchful of the habits of his friend; saw where he was about to make a failure, and with the kindness of an elder brother, resolved to aid him to escape from the danger. "I perceive," said he, "that we are both aiming at the same result, and that is, a good foundation on which to build a future prosperity, but we are pursuing a widely different path to attain it. Every man is prompted to action by some motive and for the attainment of some specific object. It is yours, as you have frankly told me, to secure a partnership with Mr. Ellerton and also the companionship of his only child; now I think your object is a laudable one. Laura is a fine girl, and Ellerton is a wealthy man, and it is certainly very desirable to gain the position of son-in-law and partner of the old gentleman, but you and Laura are both young, and I think he is wise in requiring two years of preparation before you assume so great responsibilities. In the meantime use every exertion to make yourself thoroughly acquainted with the details of mercantile pursuits, make it your first great object to make yourself competent, and with economy you need never fear but that your salary is all sufficient."

"Well, really, Mr. Phillip, you talk like a book, and I suppose you are correct, but I don't see how I'm going to lessen my expenses; I'm at my wits' end to get along now."

"Well, I can tell you one thing," said Phillip, "you can use patience instead of cigars, it is worth more and costs much less."

"Oh, fiddlesticks, Phil., what's a cigar?"

"I grant you Ed., that a cigar costs little, but you know the old maxim, 'many mickles make a muckle,' and if you would make a memorandum of every one you use, you would be surprised at the amount, in six months—at all events, it would be more than all the stock I had when I commenced banking operations."

"Banking operations!" exclaimed Edwin, "are you a stockholder? But then," he added, "I suppose you had a rich father to help you."

"Edwin, on the contrary I have had no help at all, except the judicious counsel and consistent example of the best of parents. My father's maxim was, 'My son, you must creep before you can walk—you must walk before you can run—if you would have much, take care of the little.' So I gathered up my pennies and when I had fifty cents, I put it aside, as banking capital—it formed a nucleus, and many additions were made to it, that would, otherwise have been foolishly spent. I don't think I shall ever feel as rich again, as I did when I found myself in possession of five dollars. You think Ed, you cannot live on six hundred dollars a year, but it has never cost me five, and to show you that I have not been niggardly, I have given an average of thirty dollars a year, ever since I've had a salary, to benevolent purposes, have maintained a respectable exterior, and have denied myself no necessary indulgences—I attend public lectures, musical concerts, &c., when my business permits, but the circus, theatres, balls, &c., never; because, though affording present entertainment, they provide no permanent good, and I can purchase more good with my money, elsewhere."

"Heigh ho, well Phil., I believe you are more than half right. I wish I had begun so—oh, by the way, what do you do with your money? where is your bank that you talk about?"

"Well, the most of it is in the earth—safe place, isn't it? no danger of bank failures."

Edwin's look of profound amazement provoked a hearty laugh, after which Phillip added, "Well, to be serious, I will tell you frankly. A year ago, when I had my little summer vacation, I went, with a friend, into Illinois, and purchased 160 acres of prairie land, without improvements. It is beautifully located, and I have engaged a man living near, to prepare and enclose with fence a few acres for cultivation, and build a small house. I have also engaged a housekeeper, who has no rich father to set me up in independence, but she fully sympathizes with me in my efforts—has made herself thoroughly and practically acquainted with the details of housekeeping, and has been, the last year, engaged at a good salary, in teaching school. Next spring we propose to enter upon a life partnership, and retire to our prairie home. When you make your wedding tour with the wealthy and accomplished Miss Ellerton, or, begging your pardon, Mrs. Harper, please give us a call in our humble home."

"Believe me, Phillip, nothing could afford me more pleasure."

The friends seperated for the night. The discussion of the subject, involving the interests of a lifetime was frequently renewed, until the coming spring separated them for a term of years. After Phillip's retirement, Edwin became, more than ever, restive, under the restraint of limited resources, and his importunities joined with Laura's induced Mr. Ellerton to consent to their marriage at an earlier day. In one year from the time Phillip left them, the union was celebrated with all the pomp and circumstance becoming the marriage of the only child of a wealthy merchant. Edwin was duly installed as junior partner of the firm, and being relieved from the fetters of a limited purse, his affairs moved on swimmingly, and if he gave an occasional thought to his old friend it was attended with the comforting reflection that his cautions were needless. He often told Laura he did not envy Phillip his farmer's life with his school-ma'am wife. Mr. Ellerton was disappointed; he had expected that Edwin's promotion would inspire him with earnestness in the prosecution of the business in which he had a joint interest, and that he should be somewhat relieved from the oppressive cares with which he was burdened; but it was not so. Edwin possessed the ability, but not the disposition to become a judicious and skillful financier. He preferred the pleasure of enjoyment, to the labor of acquirement. And so, one partner devoted himself assiduously to labor, the other, to pleasure.

Six years passed harmoniously and prosperously away, when, one day the entire community were electrified with the report that one of the principal banks had exploded, and that it was a hopeless and irremediable failure. The announcement was as unexpected as a clap of thunder in a clear sky, for it was an institution that ranked first in the confidence of the community. Mr. Ellerton had made large deposits in the bank, and when the report reached him, he hastened to visit the wreck, and, with multitudes of others, found his worst fears confirmed. He returned to his home a ruined man. A further investigation only revealed the fact that most of his debtors were involved in the same ruin with himself. He made an honorable adjustment of his affairs and retired to more private life. Edwin now found himself leaning upon a broken staff and was compelled to return again to the humble condition of a clerk. Mr. Ellerton found employment in a large commercial house, and eventually secured for Edwin a situation as traveling agent. He had been thus employed for several months, and was on his return from an extended tour through northern Illinois, when he approached one of the most desirable situations he had yet seen. He could not resist the desire for a more leisurely survey, and dismounting, secured his horse, and entered upon a neat gravel walk which led to the the front door of a little white cottage. On entering he called for a glass of water, and after some comments upon the beauty of the situation, inquired it it was for sale. "I think not" was the reply of the hostess, "I do not think my husband could be induced to dispose of it at any price." "May I inquire the name of the proprietor?" "Phillip Hayden," was the reply. Edwin gave an involuntary start, and immediately inquired, "Is he at home? Can I see him?" A little rosy-checked boy ran to the door saying, "I will go call papa."

He soon returned with him, and upon his entrance, "the two clerks" met, with a cordial grasp of the hand, and the mutual exclamation, Philip Hayden! Edwin Harper! revealed to Mrs Hayden who was their guest, even before an introduction. Edwin passed the night, and Phillip showed him his beautiful farm, now in a high state of cultivation, his bountiful orchard, his profusion of vines with their delicious fruit, his flocks and herds, the abundance of flowers and shrubbery, and the evening was passed in company with his intelligent, cheerful wife and two charming little ones. Edwin retired, but not to sleep. He now saw fully revealed, the wisdom of Phillip's course. In the morning after relating his own history and preparing to depart, he grasped Phillip's hand and said, "I wish I had commenced banking on your system." Phillip replied, "it is not too late now; you know I commenced with half a dollar."

Retaliation in Congress.

The subject of retaliating upon the rebels for the cruel outrages practiced upon the Union prisoners now in their hands, has been vigorously and warmly discussed for some days in the Senate. As might be expected, there is a diversity of opinion in relation to adopting retaliatory measures, even among the warmest and most reliable Union men in Congress. The old law of an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, seems to suit poor human nature much better than that forgiving spirit inculcated in the gospels, and it is in keeping with the debauched condition of public sentiment incident to a time of war, that we find grave senators advocating a measure, which, if adopted, must degrade us in the eyes of all civilized nations. It is true that the cruel and barbarous treatment of our poor soldiers in the prison pens of the South, is one of the hardest things to bear that have grown out of this inhuman and unnatural strife, but we trust the day will never come when our Government will sink itself to a level with Confederate brutality by adopting their accursed and fiendish regulations for the treatment of rebel prisoners now in our hands. If retaliation in kind could reach the responsible agents of rebel cruelty in the South, we should be glad to see the axe of justice fall with full force upon them, but it will not; and we may torture rebel prisoners until our thirst for vengeance is appeased, only to find that our cruelty has failed to mitigate the sufferings of a single Union prisoner. A military commandant in the field may be justified in adopting special measures of a retaliatory nature for the protection of his soldiers and the people under his protection, which a nation could not adopt without disgrace and dishonor. Senator Sumner has put the whole argument in a nut shell in the following resolution which he introduced during the late debate upon this important question:

Resolved, That any attempted imitation of rebel barbarism in the treatment of prisoners would be plainly impracticable on account of its inconsistency wi h sentiments of humanity, that it would be injurious at home, for it would barbarize the whole community; that it would be utterly useless, for it could not affect the cruel authors of the revolting conduct which we seek to overcome; that it would be immoral, because it proceeded from vengeance alone; that it could have no other result than to degrade the national character and the national name, and to bring down upon our country the condemnation of history, and that being thus impracticable, useless, immoral and degrading, it must be rejected as a measure of retaliation, precisely as the barbarism of roasting and eating prisoners is always rejected by civilized powers

The Pope's Letter.

In the excitement of our own affairs, the American public should not overlook the grand "Declaration of War" just made by the Pope of Rome against the ideas of the Nineteenth Century. We but repeat the voice of the liberal Roman Catholic party through Europe when we say that such a return to the spirit of the Middle Ages has not been made by any public official for more than a hundred years.

We much fear owing to its length, our readers have not read carefully this singular proclamation, and noted its important points. The first general topics on which it touches are "the heresies and errors," the "depraved and monstrous opinions of this most sad age." "These are so much the more detestable, inasmuch as they tend to destroy the influence which the Catholic Church should exercise over individuals, nations and sovereigns, to the end of the world; an influence which has always proved favorable, as well to religion as to civil affairs."

It laments especially the exclusion of religion from the direction of human society, and "the denial of the duty of coercing the violators of the Catholic religion by authorized penalties." Liberty of conscience and of worship are declared to be a delirium, and liberty of the press and speech—or in the words of the letter, "the liberty unrestrained by ecclesiastical or civil authority of manifesting or declaring any thought whatever by speech, print, or any other mode,"—is denominated "the liberty of perdition." The new assaults against monastic institutions are rebuked in the severest terms, and these are upheld as offering the mode of life most commended by the apostles and the fathers.

Democracy is indignantly denounced, and it is denied that "the will of the people, as manifested by what is called public opinion, or in any manner, should constitute the supreme law; and that accomplished facts, for the reason that they are accomplished, should retain the force of law." Popular education is discovered to be one of the worst heresies of the age, and the exclusion of the Catholic Church from the instruction of youth is described as an attempt "to deceive and deprave the inexperienced youth."

The temporal power of the Pope is asserted with as much confidence and zeal as it might have been by Gregory VII., and the Encyclical is most of all severe against "the marked impudence of those who would subject the supreme authority of the Church and of the Holy See, committed to it by Christ the Lord, and who deny all the rights of the same Church and See over things appertaining to external order."

Secret societies are thundered against, and it is maintained that the church is "competent to punish with temporal punishments the violators of its laws," or, in other words, to put down all creeds or associations which do not recognize its authority. Unitarianism is bitterly reprobated; and inasmuch as purity of heart is needful for the success of our petitions to Heaven, "a plenary indulgence" is conceded "to both sexes in the Catholic world for the space of one month only, till the end of 1865."

The language, which we have already given textually, is singularly violent and full of epithets, and the citations from the fathers, which must support the positions taken, to any logical or philosophical mind, have the most childish and unreal air.

This remarkable document is taken by the liberal Catholics of France and Italy, to be an effort, as the Siecle expresses it, "to reconstitute mortmain, re-establish religious corporations, subordinate the civil to the ecclesiastical power, suppress liberty of conscience, reconstruct a State religion, revive the ancient regime and even the Middle Ages." The Journal des Debats, speaking for the most cultivated Catholics, considers it an attempt "to go back to the time of Gregory VII," and "to interfere in the relations between sovereigns and their subjects, to domineer over one and the other, and enact the arbitrator between governments and their people." The Temps says, in the name of progressive Catholics, "all hopes of a compromise between the Church and modern society must henceforth be abandoned." The Encyclical Letter will be a great event, but principally for the reason that it will mark the powerlessness and the end of the system that it is endeavoring to galvanize."

The Italia, representing the Catholics of Turin, characterizes the letter of His Holiness as an "anathema launched against civil society, public law, popular institutions and modern liberalism." "The Vatican has abruptly broken only with the principles which govern not only Italy, but France and Liberal Europe."

Every Government in Europe, whether in its reforms in popular education, its philosophical culture, its independence of the temporal power of Rome, its suffrage and its liberty, is assailed in this most extraordinary proclamation. So far as practical influence is concerned, it will fall lifeless on the ear of the Catholic world, and will hereafter be interesting to the student of history, only as the last protest of the representative of the Middle Ages against the spirit of the Nineteenth Century.—New York Times.

DOTY'S CLOTHES-WASHERS

Are SIMPLE, DURABLE & CHEAP,

MAKE WASHING EASY, And SAVE CLOTHES.

These Washers were exhibited at the great New England Fair of 1864, won the admiration of thousands, and were awarded a splendid Diploma; also at the Wisconsin and Pennsylvania State Fairs of 1864, they were awarded the first premium.

To Wool Growers!

☞ Wool fleeces may be washed in these Machines at the rate of a fleece in two minutes, without tearing them apart, and the wool brings the price of tub-washed wool, which is five to eight cents per pound more than that washed on the sheep. This is very important to every wool grower.

They are recommended as the Very Best in Solon Robinson's great new work, "Facts for Farmers," by ORANGE JUDD, proprietor of the American Agriculturist and by other prominent men.

☞ It gives us great pleasure to be able to afford these great household blessings at the following comparatively trifling cost, which is a reduction of about 20 per cent. on former prices:

Small Size, at Janesville,	$9.50
Family " " "	10.50
Hotel " " "	13.50

☞ The above prices include Faucet. Machines with plug instead of faucet, 50 cents less.

Full Directions for Using are Attached to Each Machine.

Any person purchasing a Washer of us may return the same and have the purchase money refunded, if, after four weeks fair trial according to directions, it fails to give satisfaction.

Many of our Washers are now in use in Janesville, and we subjoin the following testimonials:

From Rev. C. W. Lawrence:

MR. DOTY—I confess I have been quite skeptical in regard to the utility of washing machines, until we gave yours a trial. Having tested it thoroughly, we are fully prepared to say, unsolicited, that we regard it as a capital machine. The principle upon which it works is the true one—removing the dirt effectually without injuring the clothes in the slightest manner. My wife endorses it heartily as a labor-saving machine, and considers it truly a "Paragon." With "Doty's Paragon Clothes Washer," and the "Universal Clothes Wringer," washing day is no longer dreaded as in days of yore.
JANESVILLE, Nov. 11th, 1864. C. W. LAWRENCE.

Messrs. Doty Bros.:

GENTLEMEN—I have had in use one of your Washing Machines since May last. We have tried other inventions, but they have invariably proved worthless, after a few weeks use. Yours is the only invention that has stood a satisfactory test in my family. It works admirably, and is a great labor saving machine; while in point of economy it has no equal. It has more than saved its cost already in the diminished wear of clothing, as compared with any other process of washing with which I am familiar. No family can well afford to be without one. Yours truly,
JANESVILLE, Dec. 16th, 1864. A. PALMER.

Persons unacquainted with the Melodeon and its history, will bear in mind that we are the pioneers and leading manufacturers, not only in the United States, but in the world. We commenced the manufacture of Melodeons in the fall of the year 1847, and since that time have finished an [illegible]

THIRTY THOUSAND!

These instruments are now in use mostly in the United States and Canada, also in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, and the West Indies, and from all these quarters we have the most flattering testimonials of the high estimation in which they are held. At all Industrial Exhibitions, they have invariably been whenever exhibiting in competition with others. We shall take pleasure in forwarding by mail (at our own expense) our Illustrated Catalogue, in which every instrument we manufacture, is fully described and illustrated by elegant engravings.

☞ All Melodeons of our manufacture, either sold by us or dealers in any part of the United States or Canada, are warranted to be perfect in every respect, and should any repairs be necessary before the expiration of five years from the date of sale, we hold ourselves ready and willing to make the same free of charge, provided the injury is not caused by accident or design.

CAUTION.

We daily see advertisements of some new reed instrument, with strange name, purporting to be superior to Melodeons and School Organs. A new exterior and new name will naturally attract attention; but the public will bear in mind that all Reed Instruments, now manufactured in the United States and Canada, are, as near as they can be made without infringing our patents, copies of our own.

☞ Agents for the sale of our Melodeons can be found in all the principal towns of the United States and Canadas. Address either

GOTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful, without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously melodious, crystalline, and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

READ WHO SAYS SO:

From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.
From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.
From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1st, 1864.

Gentlemen:—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofland's German Bitters. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.
Truly your friend, THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From John B. Withersham, Esq., firm of Withersham and Hutchinson, the celebrated manufacturers of fancy Iron Works, 259 Canal street:

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz., that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhea.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific, and, when I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.
Truly yours, JOHN B. WITHERSHAM.
New York, Feb. 2, 1864.

From Julius Lee, Esq., firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

February 8th, 1864.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else had failed.
Yours truly, JULIUS LEE.

From the Hon. Jacob Broom.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7th, 1863.

Gentlemen:—In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequalled tonic and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.
Truly yours, JACOB BROOM, 1707 Spruce.

From Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of the 12th Baptist Church.

PHILADELPHIA, December 26th, 1863.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action not only upon the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.
Very respectfully yours, W. D. SEIGRIED,
No. 254 Shackamaxon Street.

From the Rev. Thos. Winter, D. D., Pastor of Roxbury Baptist Church:

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters. I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially benefitted. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.
Respectfully yours, E. WINTER,
Roxbourough, Pa.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks county, Pa.

Dr. C. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's German Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.
Yours, with respect, J. S. HERMAN.

DR. V. CLARENCE PRICE.

Analytical Physician,

LATE OF BUFFALO, N. Y.

To the cure of all Chronic Diseases, in all the various forms and stages, DR. PRICE has for years devoted his whole attention. System of treatment founded on truth, and the only one that has proved successful. No speculation! No trifling! No deception! No making sick!! Assists nature. Permanent cures effected without experiment. Practice differs from all others. No physician living has had more experience in this class of diseases.

Lungs, Throat, Liver, Heart, Kidneys, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Fits, Scrofula, Dropsy, Female Complaints, and all chronic ailments are cured without exhausting the energies of the system, or the use of destructive agents.

We invite the sick to call. Consultation free. A candid opinion always given. We have regularly visited Janesville for years, and shall continue regularly to do so.

Dr. Price receives patients on his next visit, and on the same days of the week every eight weeks regularly:

At Janesville, Hyatt House, on Saturday and Sunday, the 4th and 5th of February.

At Woodstock, Exchange Hotel, on the 6th of February.

Waukegan, Illinois, residence, where all letters should be sent. jan1wlynov1d8m

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

ON ALL sides we hear the merits of the Grover & Bakers Sewing-Machine extolled. The ladies declare it the "very best," and prove it to us in so many undeniable facts that we are bound to confess our conviction of the truth of the declaration. What other machine will embroider so beautifully, braid so elegantly, hem so faultlessly, quilt so evenly, stitch so accurately, gather so regularly, operate so easily? None, we conscientiously affirm.

BADGER STATE GRAIN DRILL AND BROAD CAST SOWER, COMBINED.—The Badger State Grain Drill has now been made at Janesville for four years. It is now made with all the improvements which years of experience have suggested.

The Badger State for 1865 can be changed into a Broad Cast Sower and Cultivator in thirty minutes time.

It is now so arranged that by raising the teeth, the feed is shut off, and by letting the teeth down the feed is put on. Again, the Badger State is now and always has been the lightest draft of any drill in the market.

The Badger State is warranted to be as good a drill as any yet made. It is warranted to be as good a broad cast sower as any in market.

The Badger State will plant corn or beans in hills or in drills. It will sow grass seed, clover and flax at the same time that it is sowing other grain. It sows grass seed either behind or before the teeth.

The prices for the Badger State for 1865 will be—9 tooth, $85; 10 do., $90; 11 do., 95; 12 do., 100. Five dollars added for Grass Seeder; $2 added for Broad Caster.

Those wishing to buy a Drill or Broad Caster, will please bear in mind that the Badger State is a good Drill, and also a good Broad Caster, in addition to being a good Corn Planter.

The Badger State is the only combined Drill and Broad Caster in the market.

Please call and examine the Drill, and get a Circular. R. J. RICHARDSON, Manufacturer.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,

STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A tea-spoonful a day of the Constitution Water will relieve you like magic.

PHYSICIANS

Have long since given up the use of buchu, cubebs and juniper in the treatment of these diseases, and only use them for the want of a better remedy.

CONSTITUTION WATER

has proved itself equal to the task that has devolved upon it.

DIURETICS

irritate and drench the kidneys, and by constant use soon lead to chronic degeneration and consumptive diseases.

We present the Constitution Water to the public with the conviction that it has no equal in relieving the class of diseases for which it has been found so eminently successful for curing; and we trust that we shall be rewarded for our efforts in placing so valuable a remedy in a form to meet the requirements of patient and physician.

IN DYSMENORRHŒA, OR PAINFUL MENSTRUATION, AND MENORRHAGIA, OR PROFUSE FLOWING.

Both diseases arising from a faulty secretion of the menstrual fluid—in one case being too little and accompanied by severe pain, and the other a too profuse secretion, which will be speedily cured by the Constitution Water.

That disease known as FALLING OF THE WOMB, which is the result of a relaxation of the ligaments of that organ, and is known by a sense of heaviness and dragging pains in the back and sides, and at times accompanied by sharp, lancinating or shooting pains through the parts, will, in all cases, be removed by the medicine.

There is another class of symptoms arising from IRRITATION OF THE WOMB, which physicians call Nervousness, which word covers up much ignorance, and in nine cases out of ten the doctor does not really know whether the symptoms are the disease, or the disease the symptoms. We can not enumerate them here. I speak more particularly of Cold Feet, Palpitation of the Heart, Impaired Memory, Wakefulness, Flashes of Heat, Languor, Lassitude, and Dimness of Vision.

SUPPRESSED MENSTRUATION,

Which in the unmarried female is a constant recurring disease, and through neglect the seeds of more grave and dangerous maladies are the result; and as month after month passes without an effort being made to assist nature, the suppression becomes chronic, the patient gradually loses her appetite, the bowels are constipated, night sweats come on, and consumption finally ends her career.

TUMORS OR SWELLINGS, or a red spot before time in having it attended to, as a timely treatment may save them from the horrors, suffering and death of an open cancer.

CATARRH CURED!

They are treating Catarrh on a new system which is a

SURE CURE FOR THIS DISEASE!

Experience has proved that Catarrh cannot be cured by local treatment alone; hence, the many advertised cures for Catarrh, all of which are local remedies, give relief only while the patient is using them, but never cure.

Understanding the disease and we know it cannot be cured by LOCAL treatment alone, therefore, we also prescribe a constitutional remedy to be taken, and by the combined local and constitutional treatment, we are enabled to remove the causes of Catarrh, and thereby effect

A PERMANENT CURE.

THEIR CONSULTATIONS for years have averaged from five to seven thousand a year, which gives them an experience unsurpassed by any, and equalled only by a few.

Remember they do not promise to cure all stages of Disease. While all diseases are curable, if taken in season, all stages are not. Your case may be curable this week, not next—to-day, not to-morrow; hence the danger of delay.

No case will be received, when there are any doubts of Cure or Relief.

Our Terms are CASH; hence the money must be sent with all orders for medicines. It costs from five to fifteen dollars per month, to doctor with us, which includes medicines.

The poor will be favored.

CONSULTATION FREE.

Patients must write their name, State, post office address, plainly. All letters requiring an answer, must contain a letter stamp, and be addressed to DR. KNAPP & SON, Drawer 6453 Chicago, Ill.

Any of the above diseases can be treated successfully by the patients' describing their case in a letter, when they cannot see us.

Dr. Knapp, who has visited Janesville regularly for seven years, can be consulted at the Hyatt House, Wednesday, January 11th and till four o'clock p. m. Thursday, January 12th; Wednesday, March 15th and till four o'clock p. m. Thursday, March 16th; Wednesday, May 17th and till four o'clock p. m. Sewing Machines.

WILCOX & GIBBS'

SEWING MACHINE!

Will Stitch, Hem, Fell, Tuck, Cord, Bind, Braid, Quilt and Embroider beautifully. It will, with the finest needle and thread, run from perfect work on the finest Nainsook, over the heaviest beaver cloth and cowhide, with no change of needle, thread or tension.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

will use coarse cotton, linen, silk and twine. It runs easier, faster and stiller than any other machine. It forms a flat, even and elastic seam, differing from every other stitch, each loop being twisted by means of the

and drawing the twist into the goods, thus securely fastening every stitch, so that the seam will bear to be cut at frequent intervals, and in that case even, the seam is warranted NOT TO RIP in wear, and under all circumstances to "survive the washtub." Old worn out family garments, bosoms, pants, dresses, &c., have been submitted to Committees at Fairs where was the greatest competition, and to THIS STITCH premiums have been awarded for its SUPERIORITY, DURABILITY, ELASTICITY and BEAUTY.

A Patented Device prevents the possibility of the machine being run in the wrong direction, or the balance wheel ever wearing or touching the dress. By another ingenious Patent improvement,

The Needle Cannot be Set Wrong,

Thus avoiding the great trouble of other machines. In this it is so easy that a child may set it in the dark with unerring correctness every time.

NO BREAKING OF NEEDLES.

The blade of the needle is less than ¾ of an inch long, and is straight. It is less than half the length of other machine needles, many of which are curved, therefore more easily bent or broken—a great source of annoyance, expense and trouble. The Hemmer and Feller can never be set wrong. Any one may adjust them in the dark. The hem may be of any width. No other hemmer or feller is like this. It turns the hem on the right or upper side, as you want it.

IT WILL NOT DROP STITCHES;

As the needle is always set right, the blade short and straight does not vibrate, like longer ones.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

Is run by steam at 4000 stitches per minute—other machines only at 400 to 1200, with safety. They are manufactured with

MATHEMATICAL PRECISION,

Hence each part is interchangeable, and can be readily placed in case of accident.

THEY WILL NOT GET OUT OF ORDER

We have known it intimately for several years. Many thousands are already in use here, and so far as we know, not one in family use has ever cost a dime to repair, or ever been out of order at all. They will last a generation, if properly cared for. None who have used it can be persuaded to use any other.

Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine

Works at an instant's notice, and never stops "unaccountably." Not one operator in ten on the Wilcox & Gibbs will break a needle or drop a stitch in a year. The Wilcox & Gibbs in the hands of any one, knows no "skips," "drops," "jumps" or "misses." The soundness, evenness, durability and beauty of its stitch

WERE NEVER EQUALED.

Its rapidity, absolute stillness, ease of motion, narrowness and neatness of its Hem and Fell were never approached by any other machine. We can call in any boy or girl from the street, and with three minutes instruction they will set the needle, attach the Hemmer, or Feller, and do the work with entire success. A blind girl, with the exception of threading the needle, can do the same. Many ladies owning other first-class machines, come to our office to do their fine hemming and feeling on the Wilcox & Gibbs Machine.

The press universally pronounce this the best family sewing machine in the world.
